PRESTON TRIAL

By STEPHEN COOK

Kenneth Allen Preston, 20-year-old Santa Rosa killer, murdered for pleasure and profit and must die in the gas chamber for the protection of society, Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales said today.

The prosecutor, in his closing argument of a six-week trial, pleaded with a Marin Superior Court jury of eight women and four men to perform "the grim task" of sentencing the youth to death.

The trial saw Preston convicted of double murder — the Jan. 12 slaying of Curtis and Shirley Ackley, aged 28 and 34, in their Santa Venetia trailer house.

"Consider the enormity, the totality, the depravity of this crime. If this isn't a death penalty case, what under God's heaven is? If Ken Preston doesn't deserve the death penalty, then who ever should?" Bales asked.

He described the killings as a "vicious, cold, callous, calculated, classic example of first degree murder. It was killing for profit, sexual pleasure or for the just plain fun of it."

During the final hours of testimony yesterday, Preston suffered both gains and losses in his fight for life.

Two out of three psychiatrists told the jury which must decide whether he is to live or die that Preston is not a good candidate for rehabilitation.

In his favor was Judge Joseph G. Wilson's instruction to the jury that on the basis of evidence presented at the penalty trial, the young motorcyclist is not guilty of also murdering Charles Kaufmann, 19-year-old Santa Rosa Junior College student, on Oct. 7 in Santa Rosa.

Testimony that Preston sat in the car while two motorcycle gang members killed Kaufmann, but joined in the gang rape of Kaufmann's young date, is not sufficient for a murder conviction, the judge said.

Evidence on the Kaufmann murder was introduced in the penalty trial in an attempt to show Preston's character. He will go on trial for the Santa Rosa killing Sept. 17 in Sonoma County Superior Court.

Testimony by psychiatrists George R. Caesar of Greenbrae and Walter Rapaport of Oakland yesterday contradicted the previous report of a third psychiatrist that Preston has a better than average chance for rehabilitation.

Dr. Caesar, head of the Heavy Guard At Hearing For Sirhan

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Sirhan B. Sirhan, surrounded by a human shield of guards in a jail chapel turned into a courtroom, today was granted an additional three weeks to enter his plea on charges he assassinated Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The 24-year-old defendant displayed an icy calm when he appeared before Superior Court Judge Richard Schauer and answered with a half-dozen words in response to questions from the court.

TOWERING GUARDS

He showed a moment of nervousness when he entered the makeshift courtroom, flanked by five deputy sheriffs who towered over him. As he walked up a step to the counsel table Sirhan nervously stroked his upper lip with his right forefinger.

At the end of the nine-minute hearing he arose from the table and started to leave. He stumbled over the first step but recovered himself. The motion for a continuance was made by defense counsel Russell E. Parsons who pointed out that he was just recently named as attorney for Sirhan and had only a limited time to study the case.

The judge granted the continuance until July 19 at 9 a. m. and the district attorney's office, represented by John Howard and David Fitts made no objection.

NEATLY CLAD

Sirhan was clad in a long-sleeved light blue shirt, open at the neck, black slacks and black

Second Canadian Receives Heart; World's 22nd Case

MONTREAL (AP) — A surgical team at the Montreal Heart Institute planted a new heart today in the chest of Gaetan Paris, a 49-year-old electrical designer, and set it to beating with a single electrical shock.

This was Canada's second heart transplant and the world's 22nd. Like the first, it was performed by a team of the institute headed by Dr. Pierre Grondin. The surgery took somewhat less than three hours. The first paient died June 1.

The heart came from Yvon Bastien, 23, of Montreal, who died from injuries suffered in a motorcycle accident last night.

Paris had suffered three heart attacks and doctors considered he had little time to live. The father of five children, his home is nearby Laval.

Four of the world's transplant patients are still living. They include Dr. Philip Blaiberg, 59, who received a heart in Cape Town, South Africa, on Jan. 2.

However, it was reported today Dr. Christian N. Barnard, who performed the surgery on Blaiberg, is not satisfied with his patient's condition.

Legislature Approves Budget Of $5.7 Billion

5 Per Cent Tax Is Extended

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Assembly Democrats lifted an overnight blockade today and allowed the Legislature to give final passage to Gov. Ronald Reagan's record $5.7 billion budget less than three days before a crucial deadline.

The lower house voted 55-19 to send the highest budget in the history of any state to the Republican governor's desk. He must sign it before midnight Sunday or the state will lack legal authorizations to pay bills for the fiscal year that starts at 12.01 a.m. Monday.

SENATE PASSAGE

The Senate had passed the highest spending bill in the history of any state on a bipartisan 33-4 vote late last night after almost six hours of political pressure by Reagan, and Senate Democrats and Republicans.

Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, voted for the compromise budget and also cast a delaying vote on the sales tax issue.

In the Assembly, 25 Democrats joined with 30 Republicans for a vote that was one more than the two-thirds majority of 54 needed for final passage.

DEMO BLOC

The vote came a day and a half after the spending bill was first brought up on the house floor. A bloc of Assembly Democrats refused to vote for it last night on a 43-25 ballot, 11 votes short of the needed two-thirds majority.

The floor leader for the bill, Assemblyman Robert W. Crown, D-Alameda, who had given up the fight in frustration today simply asked for an aye vote and his colleagues, who had scrapped for hours the night before, quickly agreed.

Reagan told newsmen, "I'll be in my office, blue pencil poised," waiting for the budget. He referred to the guber-

FATHER HAD SOUGHT SAFETY

Greenbrae Bike Rider, 12, Fatally Injured By Truck

A 12-year-old Greenbrae boy was killed yesterday when he swerved to avoid a low tree branch and his bicycle went off the sidewalk into the path of a cement truck.

The accident happened at 1 p.m. about 1,000 feet west of the Bon Air Shopping Center on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, according to the California Highway Patrol.

William Park Dougherty, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan P. Dougherty of 70 Via Barranca, was taken by ambulance to Marin General Hospital, where he died in the emergency room at 1:10 p.m..

A friend, Jim Marchand, 13, of 85 Corte Baristo, Greenbrae, riding behind the Dougherty boy, told officers the tree branch stuck out about three feet over the sidewalk.

Young Dougherty completed seventh grade this month at Adeline E. Kent School. He was active in church and scout affairs and was to have played in the Kentfield Little League All-Star game tomorrow.

He was born in San Francisco but had lived since infancy in Marin. He was the 15th person killed in traffic accidents in Marin this year, compared to 17 last year at this time.

His father, manager of an insurance firm in San Francisco, is a director and past president of the Greenbrae Property Owners Association, which two weeks ago requested Marin County and Larkspur officials to take safety measures for pedestrian traffic on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Besides his parents, William is survived by two brothers, David, 9, and Philip, 8, and Philip's twin sister, Katherine.

Memorial services will be held at 4 p.m. Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church, San Anselmo. Private burial will be at a local cemetery. The family asked that any memorial contributions be made to the memorial fund of the church.

Supervisors Finish Budget, See Three-Cent Tax Rate Cut Likely

The Marin County Board of Supervisors, which pledged in March to limit the county tax rate because of an increasing burden on property owners, fulfilled the promise yesterday — and even surpassed it.

In tentatively approving a $28.9 million budget for the fiscal year beginning Monday, the supervisors had whittled the tax rate to $2.27 per $100 of assessed valuation. This is three cents below the supervisors' self-imposed limit of $2.30, which is also the present tax rate.

Although the figure of $2.27 is not final, a rate estimated at this point in the past has usually proven very close. The final figure, to be set in August, will depend on last-minute budget adjustments, size of the local assessed valuation roll and state assessment of public utility property in Marin.

The estimated tax rate is now based on a 5.25 per cent increase in assessed valuation, to $526.3 million — a much lower rise than in recent years. With the tentative three-cent cut in the rate, this would mean a reduction in taxes on property which has not increased in market value.

Preliminary approval of the 1968-69 budget climaxed seven days of hearings during which the supervisors wearily fought to meet the exigencies of a tax rate freeze. Deliberations opened June 17 with a projected tax rate of $2.33.

The board set adoption of the budget for July 9, praising County Administrator Alan Bruce and his staff for tailoring the spending program to the tax rate freeze.

The final acts of the budget hearings yesterday were to grant a two-and-a-half per cent cost-of-living raise to some 1,150 county employees, narrowly pass the controversial planning department budget and approve a $1.2 million spending program for the community mental health services department.

The living cost raise was in addition to an average 4.7 per cent increase given county workers. Both increases were recommended by Bruce and included in the budget.

The supervisors voted 3-2 to trim only $10,000 from the planning department's proposed $389,488 budget for fiscal 1968-69.

Supervisor John F. McInnis threw the board's budget hearing into a turmoil last Friday by demanding a $125,000 cut, but he and Supervisor Ernest N. Ket-

LBJ Signs Tax Bill

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP) President Johnson signed today the bill adding 10 per cent to most taxpayers' income tax and requiring him to cut his budget $6 billion if Congress itself does not do so.

In 15 days, employers must begin withholding an additional 10 per cent from employee's pay.

Even so, because the tax is retroactive to April 1 for individuals, an estimated 1 to 2 million taxpayers will owe an additional sum next April.

U.S. Traps Hanoi Troops; Cruiser Aids In Slaughter

SAIGON (UPI)—U.S. cavalrymen trapped a force of 500 North Vietnamese in a coastal village below the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) today and then killed 105 of them with aid of the guided missile cruiser Boston whose fire was so deadly it drove some Communists into the sea.

At least 30 Communists were captured in the battle but at nightfall 200 North Vietnamese were still fighting from bunkers. Residents of the village 100 miles below the DMZ had fled the scene, telling Americans the troops were there.

American casualties were reported "very light."

The battle east of the city of Quang Tri began last night when a North Vietnamese battalion leveled a barrage of rifle and automatic weapons fire and B40 rockets on the advancing cavalrymen.

The cruiser just off the coast moved to the scene and opened up on the North Vietnamese who gave their positions away by firing on the cavalrymen.

U.S. authorities have reported heavy infiltration since the start of the Paris Vietnam talks and the Americans countered with a more mobile strategy—involving abandonment of the Khe Sanh base—to meet the challenge.

Also aiding the DMZ effort were the strike by American planes flying one of the heaviest non-stop assaults of the war against the Communist buildup and supply centers—more than 100 missions a day for weeks on end.

American planes yesterday flew 138 missions against the narrow strip of North Vietnam between the 17th parallel border and the 19th parallel further north. The planes wiped out

Crisis Over

BRUSSELS (UPI) — Parliament today approved a coalition government and ended a four-month political crisis.

On a 115-86 vote, the House of Representatives voted for Premier Gaston Eyskens' 29-man cabinet. It is the largest cabinet to govern Belgium.

A Saving Act?

CAIRO (UPI) — The editor of the newspaper Al Ahram said today the Egyptian Air Force probably would have been wiped out by Israeli in the air if it had not first been destroyed on the ground in the 1967 Middle East war.

"After all, it was better for us to lose the air force on the ground since this saved the lives of hundreds of pilots," said editor Hassanein Haikal.

Boot Students

BERLIN (UPI) — West Berlin police today carried out 50 leftist students who occupied the Free University's administration building and refused to leave.

The students moved into the building yesterday after police forced them out of two other university buildings. A later attempt by several hundred students to enter the building was beaten back by club-swinging police.

Millionaire Twin Released

PASADENA, (UPI) — Millionaire Timothy Nicholson, 25, who served three years for the shooting of his twin brother, was a free man today.

Nicholson

Superior Judge H. Burton Noble yesterday placed Nicholson on probation for seven years, the remainder of his 1-10 year sentence.

The California Adult Authority had denied Nicholson parole three times, but Noble freed the young man after studying results of new psychiatric tests and a supplemental probation report.

Nicholson was convicted of manslaughter in 1966 in the death of his brother, Todd, then 22, who was fatally wounded by a .22-caliber rifle bullet.

The shooting occurred during a quarrel in a $400,000 apartment house owned jointly by the twins in nearby Temple City. Nicholson pleaded self defense.

French Benefits

PARIS (UPI) — The United States and France have agreed that French citizens living in France who have earned U.S. Social Security benefits will continue to receive them. The agreement, which was announced yesterday, also said U.S. recipients of French benefits would be able to receive them outside France.

Shoppers Given Break On Array Of Packaging

WASHINGTON (AP) — Manufacturers whose products fill the shelves of the nation's supermarkets have impressed the Commerce Department with the way they are abandoning a bewildering array of package sizes.

Undersecretary of Commerce Howard J. Samuels said yesterday he sees no need to ask Congress for more enforcement power to achieve the goals of the Fair Packaging and Labeling Act.

Eleven industries have already agreed, he said, to reduce the number of package sizes they distribute from 289 to 104. Purchasers of green olives, for instance, will be faced with only 15 different package sizes instead of 50, he said.

Cereals manufacturers are cutting their assortment of package sizes from 33 to 16 and toothpaste manufacturers from 57 to 5, it was reported.

For Legal Help

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. government will spend $400,000 to help South Vietnam revise its legal system, officials said today.

An agreement signed by U.S. aid officials and officials of the Ministry of Justice provides for an 18-month program to set up a supreme court, as provided for in the new constitution, and to eliminate conflicting laws.

Stewardesses Picket Airline

Union spokesman said a main complaint is against American's policy of requiring stewardesses to resign at age 32.

The company said the entire matter is "in the hands of the National Mediation Board."

IBM To Build BART Fare Collection, Change Robots

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — An advanced new automatic fare collection system for the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District will be built by International Business Machines Corp. for $4.9 million.

IBM was awarded the contract yesterday on its low bid to produce the system for Bart's 33 passenger stations. Other bids ranged from $8.9 to $20 million.

BART engineers estimated the cost at $6.8 to $9.8 million.

The system will include self-service ticket vending machines, electronic currency change-making devices and passenger gates that can automatically tabulate and subtract fares from a magnetically-coded ticket.

Passengers would be able to buy either single or multiple trip tickets under a graduated rate structure based upon distance traveled.

Heroin Suspect

PARIS (UPI) — Police arrested Raymond Guirche, 43, yesterday as the fifth suspect in a ring accused of smuggling $45 million worth of heroin into New York in an automobile.

Saigon Sets Crackdown On Dove Talk

SAIGON (AP) — Premier Tran Van Huong warned today that anyone directly or indirectly supporting pro-Communist or proneutralist policies will be subject to immediate military trial and imprisonment at hard labor.

A communique from Huong's office said the warning was issued because "a number of organizations have recently issued communiques appealing for peace in a rather vague way, sowing confusion among the population."

JUNTA CITED

Citing a 1965 decree by the military junta which ruled South Vietnam at that time, Huong said sentences at hard labor would be applied to:

"Those who directly or indirectly disseminate the policy, slogans and orders of the Communists, of individuals or groups directed or influenced by the Communists.

"Those who carry out activities intended to weaken the national anti-Communist will and affect the struggle of the people and the armed forces.

"Those who attempt and carry out neutral activities in accordance with the Communist policy under the label of peace."

SPEEDY TRIALS

Huong's statement said offenders would be brought before a court-martial within 24 hours.

Although it did not say so, the warning presumably also applies to newspapers. There was no word if the communique applied to foreign news organizations working in Vietnam.

South Vietnam's constitution prohibits procommunism and proneutralism. Persons accused of either leaning were barred from the presidential and legislative elections last fall.

Peace appeals have been issued recently by Saigon students and by the militant and moderate political wings of the Buddhists in Saigon.

The government recently fired a minister without portfolio, Phan Quang Dan, after he said in the United States that his government should take the initiative and seek talks with the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front.

IN SACRAMENTO VISIT

Warren Reflects On Court, Controversy

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Retiring Chief Justice Earl Warren says he would like the 15 "Warren years" of the U.S. Supreme Court recorded "as an honest effort to meet the problems of our day."

Criticism and dissent are healthy for the court and the entire system of American government. "I wouldn't want to take the Supreme Court out of controversy." But he said some attacks on the court have been "outlandish."

Critics of the Warren Commission investigation into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy have failed to develop facts "contrary to the findings of the commission."

Controversial civil rights issues have come to the court; the court has not deliberately sought them out.

He is not personally bothered by billboards put up in some parts of the country during the past several years calling for his impeachment. "I learned to accept criticism as well as praise..."

Warren was interviewed by radio and TV reporters during a brief visit yesterday to Sacramento, where he served 10 years as the state's Republican governor before being appointed chief justice by President Eisenhower.

He ate lunch at a country club with old friends and returned to San Francisco. The justice did not discuss specific cases.

Of the impeachment talk by some conservatives, Warren said: "That doesn't concern me, as you know. After many years in politics, I learned to accept criticism as well as praise in what we do and I really think criticism is a good thing for all our agencies of government.

"I wouldn't want to take the Supreme Court out of controversy or away from criticism because I think it strengthens our system. Of course we have had some very outlandish criticism that goes beyond the reasonable. But just the idea of dissent is a good thing in this country. I have no feeling against it at all."

Warren labeled as "unjustified" some attempts to discredit the Warren Commission's finding that Lee Harvey Oswald assassinated Kennedy. This, he said, did not apply to criticism or dissent on the report. "That is perfectly proper."

World's Finest Bourbon a 173-Year-Old Secret

CHICAGO, ILL.—Before you can call yourself the world's finest anything—you'd better have a case in your favor.

Jim Beam Bourbon has that "case."

The whole matter started with Jacob Beam—who would be 200 years old this year—and a secret he discovered.

The secret, in the case of Jim Beam Bourbon, goes back to 1795, and it is still hush-hush today. The secret lay in the heart of Kentucky where there was, and is today, the right combination for pleasure. The right land. The right climate: the perfect Bourbon formula.

In north central Kentucky, Jacob Beam found clean iron-free water—water that came from limestone springs considered the very finest. Beam set out to make Bourbon in this rolling country; and he added his own special ingredient: pride.

Six Generation Formula

The pride of this first Beam distiller has been carried through six generations, now. Every glass of today's Beam Bourbon holds the best from nature and the pride that was passed on from Jacob to David to David M. to Colonel James to T. Jeremiah to Baker and Booker Noe—over a span of 173 years.

All those Beams have rested their case on Bourbon that's worthy of your trust.

And it's still a big secret.

Russians claim credit for Beam formula

WASHINGTON—Word from the Kremlin today has startled the Bourbon-making world. Unreliable sources from Moscow state that Bourbon is not an American spirit but, in fact, a Russian one.

And the world's finest Bourbon was first distilled back in 1795 by a guy named Jacob Beam.

Not so say the Russians. They insist that Bourbon was actually discovered 10 years earlier by Ivan Chekkakoff in a little town called Vladivostok.

They further state that the famous Beam formula is nothing more than a copy of the Chekkakoff stuff.

However, they did admit they have been importing substantial amounts of clear, iron-free water from limestone springs in north central Kentucky.

Idle Boast?

American sources declined to comment except to say that Bourbon will probably be on the moon 10 years before vodka will.

JIM BEAM BOURBON—MAKING NEWS SINCE 1795

CLERMONT, KY.—173 years ago Jacob Beam started making Beam Bourbon here in Kentucky. It is still being made here today. And still by the Beams.

Along with inspired skills, the making of a Bourbon like Beam requires an unusual combination of land, climate and natural materials. And it's all here, in north central Kentucky.

There's the ancient, underlying limestone springs that supply sweet, clear water—a vital ingredient in the making of fine Bourbon.

Hanoi Sees Khe Sanh A U.S. Defeat

PARIS (UPI)—North Vietnam's negotiators at the deadlocked peace talks today claimed the American pullout from Khe Sanh is "one of the most serious strategic defeats" suffered by the United States in the Vietnam War.

A Hanoi spokesman told a news conference called to claim downing of the 3,000th American plane over North Vietnam that 15,000 American and South Vietnamese soldiers were killed and injured while trying to hold the strategic Marine outpost, south of the Demilitarized Zone.

He said, 11,700 of the casualties were Americans. U.S. Marines reported suffering 2,008 casualties—including wounded—at Khe Sanh.

Nguyen Thanh Le, chief spokesman for the Hanoi delegation, described the withdrawal from Khe Sanh as an American attempt to avoid full defeat.

Intensified pressure on the battlefield and propaganda efforts in Paris are major elements of the strategy of North Vietnam, Communist sources said.

The sources said Hanoi was confident this strategy would bring about a weakening of America's resolve to fight the war.

French Left Element New Uprise Forecast

PARIS (UPI)—A new wave of pre-election violence struck France today, and the government said it had received warnings of a new and even more violent leftist attempt to overthrow the government in October.

Interior Minister Raymond Marcellin, who controls police, said several revolutionary groups would try again to bring down the government but that the government of President Charles de Gaulle would be ready.

As Frenchmen prepared to vote Sunday in the runoff elections for the National Assembly a plastic bomb blasted the campaign headquarters of Gaullist candidate George Gorse in suburban Boulogne-Billancourt.

It ripped open the ground floor offices of the former Minister of Iinformation and shattered neighborhood windows.

In Paris, a Molotov cocktail was hurled at the left bank campaign headquarters of Gaullist Madame Nicole de Hautecloque, smashing the door and windows.

Gregory was scheduled to enter a plea yesterday before Federal District Court Judge Oliver J. Carter. He was indicted after refusing to take a pre-induction physical examination at the Oakland Army Induction Center Jan. 10.

Gun-Pointing Act Reported

A young man in a black hearse pointed a gun at two San Rafael boys Wednesday as they stood on a sidewalk, then lowered it and drove off.

Gordon Jones Jr. of 2 Acacia Way and Mark Meredith of 312 Jewel Street, both 11, were walking on Acacia near Grand Avenue when the man in a white T-shirt drove up to the intersection and pointed a pistol at them. After a few seconds, in which the boys stood in shocked silence, the man drove away.

The boys told San Rafael police that they did not notice the license number on the vehicle.

Driver Shaken In Auto Crash

A San Rafael man was knocked momentarily unconscious and suffered a concussion Wednesday when the car he was driving collided with another auto as he tried to cross Second Street on the Highway 101 on-ramp in San Rafael.

Robert E. Hudson, 35, of 19 La Loma Court was treated at Marin General Hospital. The accident occurred at about 2:15 p.m.

Hudson's car, a 1961 Volkswagen, suffered major damage. The other auto, a 1965 Ford driven by Lynn Y. Hashimoto, 16, of 1232 Irwin Street, San Rafael, was moderately damaged.

Meeting Postponed

The next meeting of the Fairfax Design Review Board, scheduled for July 4, has been postponed to the next regularly scheduled meeting on Aug. 1 at 8 p.m. in the Fairfax Women's Club, according to board secretary Dell Blodgett.

Senate Gun Control Backers Admit Gloom

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Advocates of strong gun control legislation today conceded for the first time they face the threat of a session-ending filibuster which could bury even their attempts to outlaw mail order sales of rifles and shotguns.

The Senate Judiciary Committee dealt them a stinging defeat when it voted 7 to 5 yesterday to postpone consideration of any gun legislation until July 9 — just three weeks before the anticipated adjournment date.

The advocates —prior to the committee action —were optimistic about passing legislation which would include the mail order prohibition plus provisions to require federal registration of all firearms and licensing of their owners.

The committee vote was taken with three key advocates of gun control action absent, Sens. George Smathers, D-Fla., Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., and Hugh Scott, R-Pa.

Sen. Joseph D. Tydings, who sponsored the amendment to include licensing and registration, said those three "might have been able to help us."

Scott complained later that he had not been notified in time for the vote.

Smathers arrived shortly after the vote and told Tydings he had been caught in a long-distance telephone call at the time of the vote. Kennedy, inactive in the Senate since the assassination of his brother, was reported ready to either telephone his vote or come to the meeting.

"It was a defeat any way you look at it," Tydings said. He said proponents of more gun controls "better realize this was a real defeat and chances of passage are substantially weakened."

Actor Rod Taylor Sues For Divorce

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Australian-born actor Rod Taylor has sued his wife of five years, model Mary Hilem, for divorce charging her with "extreme cruelty."

Taylor, 38, said in the action filed yesterday in superior court that it is in the best interest of their only child, Felicia, 3, to live with her mother in Palm Springs.

Taylor, who lives in Beverly Hills, sought visiting rights and "reasonable" child support payments.

Clark Goes Easy On Wiretap Use

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark says the Justice Department will continue to make limited use of wiretaps and other electronic bugging devices despite new authority for wider use of such methods.

Clark told an appropriations subcommittee yesterday as it considered his department's budget request that the value of wiretaps is not as great as many suppose and his department is winning an increasing number of convictions without them.

"We will continue on that course," Clark said.

Three presidents, Monroe, Hayes and Kennedy, were wounded in battle.

...a message to 94,000 Solid Citizens

CITIZENS FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION
700 MARKET STREET AT KEARNY • SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA 94102 • TELEPHONE 982-1400

June 28, 1968

Dear Friends:

Month by month in this political year, the only direction is up--higher prices, higher wages, higher taxes. Our gross national product, employment, prices of stocks and interest rates, all approached or exceeded all time highs.

At Citizens, operations are about normal. In May we loaned more than $10 million on Bay Area homes at an average interest rate of 7.21%. Our average loan portfolio yield has inched up to 6.4%. Our savings intake continues good -- in the last 12 months savings increased 9%, loans and total assets increased 11%. Our assets exceed $400 million.

The 1968 Federal Tax Bill is designed to soften the boom, slow down inflation, ease credit and reduce loan interest rates. Even so, an enormous backlog of demand for new homes is building up. Citizens can use more savings profitably, now and in the foreseeable future.

The Federal Government sets ceilings on the savings rates paid by insured financial institutions. On passbook accounts, commercial banks can pay 4% maximum, savings associations in most states can pay 4-1/2% to 4-3/4%. Citizens can and does pay 5% on passbook accounts -- 1/4% more on 3-year Bonus Certificates. Banks are limited to 5% on Certificates of Deposit, except above $100,000 per account.

In deciding where to invest surplus cash, investigate carefully. When does interest start? When is it paid? When can you withdraw? What do you earn if you do withdraw?

In addition to passbook accounts and Bonus Certificates, Citizens also offers its unique Monthly Reminder Savings plan. These accounts earn 5% and receive a monthly statement and bill to encourage regular savings.

Now in its 84th year, Citizens Federal wishes a wonderful summer to the owners of its 94,000 savings accounts.

Cordially,

F. Marion Donahoe

shoes. His hair appeared to have been freshly cut.

After he sat down Judge Schauer asked "Are you the defendant Sirhan B.Sirhan?"

"Yes, sir," Sirhan replied in precise English.

Later in the proceedings Judge Schauer explained that time was running out on a 60-day time limit for bringing a defendant to trial after the date of indictment.

Parsons said he would waive the time limit and the judge asked Sirhan if he agreed.

"Yes, sir, I do," said Sirhan after a whispered conference with Parsons.

The proceedings were witnessed by about 125 newsmen plus a few members of the public mostly including attorneys. There were 12 uniformed deputies spaced about the chapel courtroom.

A young man, believed to be Sirhan's brother Adel, was escorted into the courtroom by a half-dozen plainclothes sheriff's detectives.

The hearing began at 9:05 a. m. and ended at 9:14 a.m. No one was permitted to leave the courtroom until 9:30 a. m. Newsmen were released when Sheriff Peter Pitchess returned to the room indicating that the defendant was back in his tight security cell.

Before being permitted to enter the County Jail where the hearing took place, newsmen and all other persons were "frisked." Then their names were taken on a register at a ground floor waiting room.

They were escorted to the third floor and given another and more severe frisking in a mess hall near the chapel. Pen knives and fingernail clippers and any other potential weapons were held by deputies.

No cameras or recording equipment were allowed in the courtroom. Several artists were in the courtroom and sketched principals for newspapers and television stations.

The continuance meant Sirhan may not be tried until September and possibly until after the November elections for the June 5 slaying.

10 GIs Granted Swedish Asylum

STOCKHOLM (UPI)—Neutral Sweden granted asylum today to 10 more deserters from the U.S. armed forces including one who said he was decorated personally by President Johnson in Vietnam.

Six of the men came to Sweden from the Vietnam War via the Soviet Union where they made television appearances denouncing the war. One of these was Terry Marvell Whitmore, 21, of Memphis, Tenn., who said Johnson awarded him a decoration during Johnson's visit to Cam Ranh Bay, a major base in South Vietnam.

County Budget Expected To Cut Tax Rate 3 Cents

tenhofen landed on the short end of the vote yesterday.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr, clearly referring to the swing vote on the issue, Supervisor William A. Gnoss, initially moved to cut $20,000, saying "I want to get votes here."

"I don't think this will cripple the department," said Behr, "although I doubt that the department would call it a victory."

Behr's motion, mindful of Gnoss' reluctance to fire any county employees, provided that the $20,000 cut be made without any reduction in staff.

Before the $20,000 cut could come to a vote, however, Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows noted that the proposed budget would cut a senior planner effective Sept. 1, and that $10,000 would have to be added before the $20,000 cut if all present planning staff members were to be retained.

The department's budget went up $10,000 and down $20,000, for a net cut of $10,000, in one motion.

"My intentions were for a higher cut," said Gnoss, "but it seems to be what the people want."

County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker had asked for $404,262 for the coming fiscal year, but County Administrator Alan Bruce had trimmed the figure to $389,448.

The supervisors also approved a balanced transportation study to be done by the planning and public works departments.

The cost of the planning budget will be offset by an estimated $34,877 in revenue from fees and other services by the department.

Thus, the net cost of the planning department is slightly more than six cents on the county property tax rate. Each penny on the rate raises $56,145, according to Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell.

Most of the audience spoke against any cut, but Philip Maley, president of the Irate Taxpayers of Marin, insisted that "planning could be simplified."

The mental health budget is up $606,498 from the current fiscal year, largely to accommodate the opening of the new Community Mental Health Center in October.

The Marin Institute for Alcoholism, which contracts with the county through the mental health services department, was voted $11,613 in county funds to continue operating — the same amount as this year. The institute also is supported by state funds and patient fees.

The supervisors made it clear that they wanted the private sector to accept a greater fiscal responsibility for running the institute. Daniel A. Meyerson, institute director, was urged to start a fund-raising drive.

BART Contract Engineers Hit

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The Bay Area Rapid Transit District's contract engineers were blamed yesterday for $100 million in extra construction costs at a heated board of directors' meeting.

Although James Doherty wanted the entire matter settled, discussion finally was put over for a special meeting July 9.

what was called a "government control center" near Vinh.

U.S. B52s flew another series of missions in the Saigon area, concentrating on the big Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troop buildup of 8,000 men expected to hit Saigon in a new offensive within a few days.

The threat was so serious the government ordered blackouts, new bomb shelters built and siren blasts as a protection against rockets which have taken a heavy toll of civilian lives. Both American and South Vietnamese troops were on the alert for the attack which could come at any time.

In the coastal battle near Quang Tri a spotter aboard the Boston reported he could see North Vietnamese plunging into the South China Sea to escape the bombardment.

Food Costs Increase

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The cost of living for Americans rose three-tenths of one per cent last month, largely because of an unexpected increase in food prices, the government reported today.

The Labor Department said food prices rose six-tenths of one per cent, pushing the consumer price index to 120.3 per cent of the 1957-59 base period.

That meant it took $12.03 in May to buy the same goods and services that $10 would buy about 10 years ago.

Overall prices for farm products, from consumer products to feed grains, rose 1.5 per cent last month.

Late harvests, weather damage to crops and dwindling stockpiles were blamed. Normally food prices drop in May and a decline of about two-tenths of one per cent had been expected by officials last month.

Fruits, vegetables and meats led the advance in food prices. Dairy product prices also were up.

Charges for consumer services advanced by four-tenths of one per cent with personal care, medical care, taxes and home repairs leading the upswing.

In addition to food, a surprise increase was in fuel oil prices which registered a 2.2 per cent seasonally adjusted rise although retail gasoline prices declined slightly and wholesale gasoline prices were off two per cent.

The Labor Department said more than 210,000 workers would receive pay increases based on either the consumer price index or local cost adjustments as a result of the May statistics.

The increases in costs for food and other items overshadowed the first decline in industrial goods prices in four years, a department spokesman said.

The overall two-tenths of one per cent drop in industrial commodities was credited to reductions in copper prices as supplies increased following the end of an eight month industry-wide strike in April.

The consumer price index stood 4.1 per cent above May, 1967, while the wholesale price index increase of two-tenths of one per cent pushed the over-the-year increase to 2.6 per cent.

Officers Comb Canyons Seeking Illegal Camps

Repeated complaints of illegal camping and fire-building in the Kent Woodlands and Madrone Canyon area yesterday resulted in a search of the area by police and firemen.

Sheriff's Sgt. Edward Levine said several old campsites — including lean-to-huts — were found and destroyed, but only one illegal camper was located.

The 18-year-old Tiburon youth admitted he had been camping about a week, but said he started no fires. He was ordered to clean up the site on private property, then was permitted to leave.

Sergeant Levine also said three cans containing what appeared to be marijuana seeds were found at an unoccupied camp site. He said the two-hour search, which started about 3 p.m., involved five sheriff's officers, two county drug abuse bureau agents, five men from Kentfield Fire Department, two from Marin County Fire Department, and two Larkspur police officers.

Final passage of the budget came a day after the Legislature voted to extend the 5 per cent sales tax for 90 days. If it hadn't, the tax would have dropped 4½ per cent on Monday, a $193 million a year revenue loss to the state.

55TH VOTE

The 55th Assembly vote was cast by Assemblywoman March Fong, D-Oakland, the only minority member to vote for the spending bill. The rest, Democrats like her, had refused because they said it didn't contain enough money for minority funds.

The rest of the Democrats had held out for a number of reasons — the loss of pet projects, lack of money for big city problems and what they considered too big a surplus in the budget.

The budget totals $5,710,315,-991—$11 million more than Reagan wanted.

Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh said he believes the impasse was broken overnight because some Democrats decided to take the "responsible way" and vote for the budget, even though it doesn't contain items they wanted to help the urban poor.

The speaker told reporters in a corridor interview he would talk to the governor personally and urge him not to veto any items pertaining to this field which are in the budget.

Unruh said the extension of the sales tax gives Reagan an estimated $60 million surplus in the budget and there should be no excuse for any cuts. Reagan cut $43.5 million from last year's budget with his "blue pencil" authority.

Reagan, told the Assembly gave the budget final passage, smiled and commented, "That's great."

Mink Stole, Rug Equipment Taken

Three burglaries including the theft of a mink stole from a Paradise Cay home were reported today by sheriff's officers.

Deputies said the home of Thomas E. Irvine Jr., 221 Jamaica Street, was entered by forcing a front door. The break-in was reported yesterday by Jeremy H. Wooliever, 60 Bayview Terrace, Strawberry.

Burglars forced a door of a panel truck owned by Henry Ingwersen, 1016 Las Gallinas Avenue, Terra Linda, entering to steal $1,165 worth of rug cleaning equipment.

Ingwersen said yesterday the truck was parked at home.

A window ventilator of the car of Mrs. Hallard J. Strey of Austin, Minn., was broken at Stinson Beach on Wednesday, she reported. Taken was a purse containing about $3.

Marinwood Sets Higher Budget

The Marinwood Community Services District board has adopted a tentative 1968-69 budget of $167,832. This is about $35,000 higher than last year's budget, and approximately $20,000 of the increase is for the new fire protection service to upper Lucas Valley.

The board, at Tuesday's meeting, asked member Lawrence B. Malkin and recreation director William Gordon to submit a proposal to the San Rafael High School District on the possibilities of sharing summer recreation costs.

The board set its next meeting for 8 p.m. July 17 at the community center, when three new board members will take their seats.

Reagan Puts Demo In Top Health Post

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Ronald Reagan has elevated an assistant division chief in the Department of Public Health to be Dr. Lester Breslow's permanent replacement as state public health director.

Reagan yesterday appointed Dr. Louis F. Saylor, a 55-year-old Democrat, to fill the $26,000-a-year directorship for a term ending Jan. 1, 1972.

Assistant director Dr. Hamlet C. Pulley has held the post on a temporary basis since last December when Breslow resigned because he differed with Reagan's public health policies.

Saylor has served as assistant chief of the department's Division of Research since 1960 and prior to that as a U.S. Army medical officer for 21 years.

Rearan described Saylor as "a professional in the field of public health and a man of proven competence and ability whose background and experience eminently qualify him for the job."

In introducing Saylor to newsmen, Reagan said the new director examined him when he served in the horse cavalry prior to World War II and "found I couldn't see across the room." But, Reagan quipped, Saylor "fixed it so I could serve in World War II." The governor was in a unit which made military training films during the war.

Saylor told newsmen he has no immediate plans for changes in his department.

Crime On Rise

CUTTACK, India (AP) — The eastern Indian state of Orissa has reported a sharp increase in reported 33,999 major cases last year, compared with 28,491 the previous year.

Property Tax Ceiling On November Ballot

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — An initiative to limit property taxes in California has qualified for the Nov. 5 general election ballot.

Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan made the announcement yesterday after his office received petitions containing 558,830 signatures. A total of 520,276 signatures was required.

The initiative would limit property tax to 1 per cent of market value for property-related services. If approved, the measure would take effect July 1, 1969.

It also would provide a phase-out of 20 per cent a year of property taxes supporting education and welfare so that by July 1, 1973, those services will no longer be financed by the taxes.

The initiative is known as the Watson Amendment because its chief proponent is Los Angeles County Assessor Philip E. Watson.

In a statement distributed to newsmen, Watson said getting the measure on the ballot assures Californians "the opportunity to vote themselves a 50 per cent cut in their property tax bills."

THE POLITICAL SCENE

McCarthy Party Ires Wilkins; Humphrey Denies 'Status Quo'

Only 150 of the 2,000 delegates showed up among the 300 persons who attended.

Wilkins denounced McCarthy at a news conference.

On the other hand, a group of young Negroes announced formation of BAM—Black Americans for McCarthy.

"I'm sorry we couldn't provide the drinks," the senator said. "We have to live off the land in my campaign."

The response to McCarthy at the reception in a motel was described as "mildly enthusiastic." But a Negro who attended said about 40 per cent of those there were white and "the white ones are the noisy ones."

McCarthy did not go to Convention Hall where the NAACP's 59th annual convention was held. His supporters passed out invitations to the reception on the convention floor, which made Wilkins angry.

Wilkins called the news conference to denounce the reception—which at this point was scheduled for several hours later. He said he considered the reception an "intrusion on our convention."

"I just wonder if meddling has become a technique of the McCarthy campaign" Wilkins said.

Earlier this week, Sen. Fred Harris, D-Okla., co-chairman of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's presidential campaign, addressed the NAACP delegates at Convention Hall. McCarthy strategists maintained this appearance shattered the NAACP's proclaimed nonpartisanship.

The senator was asked about Wilkins' meddling remark.

"Well, they said I was meddling in Democratic politics when I went to New Hampshire," he said at the airport.

"We have a good tradition for meddling in this country," he said at the reception later. "It goes all the way back to Thomas Jefferson who meddled with the British Empire."

HUMPHREY

BISMARCK, N.D. (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey denied today that he is a "status quo" candidate and pledged a vigorous presidency dedicated to "the achievement of both social order and social justice."

"I do not seek the presidency to preserve anybody's status quo," Humphrey said, responding to the contention by supporters of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy that the vice president's support from old-line Democratic politicians reflects a dedication to the so-called "old politics."

"I seek the presidency to put it to work for the people—and work I will," Humphrey said in a speech prepared for the North Dakota Democratic convention.

A late schedule change gave Humphrey the chance to get in last licks with McCarthy due to speak to the convention some three hours earlier. A poll of delegates, for the information of the convention's committee to select the state's 25 representatives to the party's national convention, takes place after the two candidates speak.

NIXON

MIAMI (UPI)—Richard M. Nixon praised Hubert H. Humphrey yesterday but said the vice president, his chief Democratic rival for the presidency, was committed to the "old ways"—the centralization of power in the hands of the federal government.

In his fourth national broadcast (CBS), since he started his quest for the Republican presidential nomination, Nixon hammered away at the idea of big government which he said leads to "more rebellions, more frustration."

To attack this problem, the former vice president recommended as one of the first tasks of the next president, "a searching, fundamental reappraisal of our whole structure of government" from federal departments down to state and local agencies.

Nixon proposed the establishment of a high-level commission to study ways of stepping up the efficiency of government organization.

Toward this end, Nixon said, the commission would be charged with "searching out every feasible means of decentralizing government, of getting it closer to the people, of transferring functions to state and local governments . . ."

ROCKEFELLER

The New York governor toured the flatlands of Iowa, South Dakota and Nebraska yesterday, promoting "coattail power" and chiding Richard M. Nixon for not speaking out "when the nation needs discussion of the crises it is facing."

It was an arduous day of campaigning. Rockefeller rode in an old red fire truck through Sioux City, Iowa, held a news conference in Sioux Falls, S.D., and stopped off at Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's drugstore in Huron, S.D., to buy $20.75 worth of gifts before arriving here by private jet last night.

Today he was to meet with Nebraska's 16 delegates to the Republican National Convention —15 of them committed to former Vice President Nixon and the 16th to Sen. Roman Hruska. Later he was to speak at the University of Nebraska.

WALLACE

BALTIMORE (UPI)—George Wallace told cheering supporters in suburban Columbia yesterday that if elected president he would try Vietnam dissenters for treason and cut off foreign aid to nations who do not help the American war effort.

The independent presidential candidate, who transferred his speech to Columbia after Baltimore police warned of possible violence if he spoke in that city, brought some 4,000 persons to their feet with his remarks about the restoration of "law and order" in America.

The crowd roared when Wallace said if, as president, dissenters tried to lie down in front of his car "it would be the last auto they'll ever lie down in front of."

The candidate of the American Independent Party was in Boston today to help promote Operation Yankee Doodle, a signature drive designed to get his name on the November ballot in Massachusetts.

STASSEN

LANSING, Mich. (UPI)—Harold Stassen says he will win the Republican presidential nomination.

After a 40-minute meeting with Gov. George Romney yesterday, Stassen told newsmen he anticipates "on the first ballot approximately 100 votes."

After that, the former Minnesota governor said the GOP national convention will deadlock between Richard M. Nixon and Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

Stassen said Romney and the 48-vote Michigan delegation are "the real key to the national convention."

James C. Dukes, California Highway Patrol sergeant, is president of Peace Officers Association of Marin County.

Three Quentin Guards Retiring

Three San Quentin correctional officers will retire Sunday after completing a total of 88 years of service.

William F. Herrick, 67, leaves after 31 years at the prison and Charles C. Monaghan, 62, ends a 35-year career. Both are residents of San Quentin Village.

State Insurance Fund Office To Santa Rosa

The state Compensation Insurance Fund adjustment facilities for Marin and three other counties have moved to 625 Steele Lane in Santa Rosa and will begin operations there Monday, district manager has announced.

The adjustment offices were formerly in San Francisco.

Northbound 101 Lanes Restricted Tomorrow

Northbound motorists on Highway 101 will encounter lane restrictions between Lucas Valley Road and Miller Creek Road Saturday between 3 and 10 a.m., the State Division of Highways reported.

Workmen will be removing lane striping as part of a construction project to widen the highway to six lanes between Forbes Overhead and Pacheco Creek Overcrossing.

Synanon's Festival Will Open

Supporters of Synanon Foundation, which maintains a reseach center in Marshall, tomorrow will open a two-day, fund-raising street fair on four blocked-off San Francisco streets, an art and musical festival called "Synanon Street Scene."

Several Marin artists will be represented in the show which will run tomorrow from 10 a.m. to midnight and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Sansome, Winthrop and Montgomery streets between Coit Tower and the Embarcadero will be blocked off.

The festival, which seeks to raise $250,000 for the foundation's fight against drug addiction, will feature jazz and rock groups, theater groups, fashion shows, comics, poets and clowns aong with a multitude of arts and crafts displays.

Booths by Sausalito painters, Joe Wheeer, Scott Hammaker, Serge Trubach, Stella Popowski, James McKinley and Glasa Ann White will be set up along with a jewelry-making display by Sheiagh Rigmaiden.

Poetry reading by Eric Norstad of Corte Madera, paintings by Mill Valley artists Fred Barnett and Bob Pepper, and sculpture by Ann Griffin, also of Mill Valley, will be on the program.

Other Marin artists featured in the festival include Peter Worsley of Inverness, Betty Jo Norton of Larkspur, Eve von Neumann of San Anselmo, and Hap and Mary Kay Kliban, also county residents.

Prizes will be awarded in a drawing at 8 p.m. Sunday.

Smog Board Elects

Election of officers for 1968-69 will be among items on the agenda of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District board of directors meeting Wednesday at 10 a.m., 1480 Mission Street, San Francisco.

Poor People Mapping Party Poverty Pleas

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, speaking from jail, says his Poor People's Campaign will appeal to the Republican and Democratic national conventions to adopt stands on eliminating poverty.

Abernathy, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, which runs the campaign, spoke yesterday during a jailhouse news conference.

Abernathy was sentenced to 20 days in jail Tuesday after pleading no contest to the charge that he violated laws against demonstrating on Capitol grounds.

He said he will take no solid food while in jail, just fruit juices and medicine. The fast will give him spiritual strength to carry on the work of the Poor People's Campaign, he said.

The campaign, he said, will press its views to the platform committees of the national conventions in August.

Abernathy also predicted, without elaborating, that new Resurrection Cities "will spring up all over the country, including Washington."

The original Resurrection City was the shantytown which housed campaign demonstrators from mid-May until this past Monday, when the demonstrators were evicted from their huts.

Meanwhile Rev. A. D. King, brother of the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., has vowed to help 211 fired St. Petersburg, Fla., garbagemen "fight the battle" to regain their jobs with a pay increase.

In a speech following the arrest of 45 protest marchers last night, King declared that "soul force" would prevail and "bring down the walls of city hall" in this resort town of 180,000.

King said he had heard that his life had been threatened, but said he was not concerned.

The 211 workers have demanded an increase of 25 cents an hour in wages on salaries ranging from $1.75 to $2.25 an hour. City Mgr. Lynn Andrews fired the workers — all but one of whom are Negroes — after they went out on strike May 7.

FLOOD BATTERS MARINE BASE

Cars stacked atop each other like children's toys are the aftermath of a flash flood at Henderson Hall, a Marine Corps facility in Arlington, Va., near the Pentagon. Some 140 cars were damaged; the loss to autos and nearby buildings in last night's flood was estimated at $250,000. (UPI Telephoto)

Fairfax Planners Endorse Center Boulevard As Link

Fairfax planning commissioners last night recommended to city councilmen that Center Boulevard be made the main thoroughfare through San Anselmo and Fairfax, agreeing with a stand taken by San Anselmo planning commissioners Monday night.

The ruling meant both commissions are in agreement with recommendations made by the San Francisco traffic consulting firm of Peat, Marwick and Livingston which is conducting a study for both cities.

Fairfax commissioners also recommended an $820,000 plan for constructing a link between Center and Sir Francis Drake over the top of the Lucky Market in downtown Fairfax.

Commissioners recommended elevating the Sir Francis Drake-Center link above the market in preference to a $530,000 plan that would go around the market but divide the business district and a $1,050,000 plan that would necessitate removal of the market.

John Kay, a spokesman for the firm, said the proposals would handle Fairfax and San Anselmo traffic adequately until 1985.

In the interim — until funds are available for widening Sir Francis Drake to four lanes with parking or six lanes without, and building the connection — a short-range plan was recommended by the commission.

The $4,000 plan calls for removal of traffic islands, installations of stop signs and left-turn lanes, and no-parking zone on the south side of Sir Francis Drake. A proposal for no parking on the north side of Sir Francis Drake was withdrawn in response to objections from merchants.

A public hearing on the traffic study and the city's five year capital improvement program will be held by the commission on July 18.

The Fairfax Planning Commission also:

GOLDFISH — Recommended to the city council approval of a use permit for Joseph A. Perkins to operate a retail outlet at 117 Mono Avenue for the sale of marine life and goldfish and of drygoods related to keeping fish.

STUDIO — Recommended to the council approval of a use permit application by Hugh S. Wiley for a sculpture studio and for evening art classes at 85 Bolivar Road.

APARTMENT — Suggested that James B. Johnson apply for apartment (R3) zoning for four lots at Sir Francis Drake and Willow Avenue, currently zoned commercial. The commission on May 23 tabled action on his application for duplex zoning.

Mill Valley Abstains From Gun Law Stand

Mill Valley abstained from voting on the resolution passed Wednesday by the Marin Council of Mayors and Councilmen opposing the county gun ordinance adopted by the board of supervisors last week.

The Independent-Journal yesterday omitted Mill Valley's action on the resolution which passed 4-3 with one city absent and three cities abstaining when their delegations could not reach agreement. The motion asked that the county gun law be rescinded to allow further public

Reagan Will Unlock Gates For Cal-Expo

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Monday's opening of California's $34 million monument to itself, the California Exposition and State Fair, marks the beginning of a unique partnership between the state and private enterprise.

When Gov. Ronald Reagan unlocks Cal-Expo's gates during brief ceremonies, tourists will get their first look at an upbeat amusement park, owned by the state and operated by businessmen.

The park they'll see Monday is only partially completed, at this point lacking most of the exhibits intended to depict and interpret California's history and heritage.

Most of the permanent buildings have been built on the 1,040-acre site, but their rooms are empty. Many canals have been dug, yet await landscaping. Other features of the amusement park are still on the drawing boards.

You might say tourists this summer will see the icing. The cake is still in the oven.

This summer, there will be livestock exhibits and competitions, collegiate and professional rodeos, country-western music, and traditional amusement park games and rides.

Additionally tourists will find a plastic encased flower pavilion, featuring exotic plants and shrubbery and spruced with fresh cut flowers. The Royal London Philharmonic Orchestra has scheduled a concert nearby on July 20.

After opening the gates, Reagan will pay the $1.50 adult admission price to emphasize Cal-Expo's "everybody pays, no one gets free passes" policy.

Marin Students Win Davis Scholarships

They are Sarah W. Field of 137 Woodlane Avenue, Fairfax, graduate of Redwood High School; Laura L. Griffin of 24 E. La Guerra Road, San Rafael, Terra Linda High School; Charles E. Johnson of 44 Harte Avenue, San Rafael, San Rafael High School, and Gaynel P. O'Niel, 1020 Los Gamos Road, San Rafael, Terra Linda High School.

Bruce Walford of 350 Chapman Drive, Corte Madera, told police that while he was at work yesterday someone entered his home through an unlocked door and stole a tape recorder from a back bedroom.

Sonoma-Marin Fair Queens Are Chosen

A 19-year-old Sausalito girl was chosen "Miss Marin" and a Petaluma resident was selected "Miss Sonoma" last night at the Sonoma-Marin Fair in Petaluma.

The Marin winner is Bonnie Ruth Kissich, a College of Marin home economics major. She lives at 98 Rodeo Avenue. Kathleen T. Hodge, 18, of 2525 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Fairfax, was selected runner-up.

"Miss Sonoma" is Stephanie Pope, 18. Runner-up was 18-year-old Suzanne Evans, also from Petaluma.

Miss Kissich and Miss Pope will represent their counties in the Maid of California Pageant at the California Exposition in Sacramento.

The fair, at the Petaluma fairgrounds, continues through Sunday. Tonight, a rodeo is scheduled at the grandstand at 8 p.m. These activities are set for tomorrow: junior horse show, 1 p.m., grandstand; dance revue, 2:30 and 7:30 p.m., Gardenway stage; Pat Buttram show, 6:30 and 8:30 p.m., Gradenway stage, and an 8 p.m. rodeo at the grandstand.

Africa's Pill Habit

JOHANNESBURG (AP) — South Africans consume 2,400,000 pills each year, said Dr. Gerald Machanic in an article in the South African Nursing Journal. Of these about one million are pain killers.

Two Plead Innocent To Joint Burglary

Alexander Jose Semons, 20, and Gregory Alexander Pilkington, 22, entered innocent pleas in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to a joint charge of burglary.

Preliminary hearing was scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Tuesday. Semons, of San Rafael, and Pilkington, of Marinship, are accused of burgling a building occupied by Gary O. Church at 31 Bulkley Avenue, Sausalito, on Monday.

Bales Demands Death Penalty For Preston

psychiatric section at Marin General Hospital, said he has grave doubts as to whether Preston can be rehabilitated.

"He (Preston) shows no evidence of remorse or that he has any pangs of conscience or wishes that it could have been otherwise," Dr. Caesar said. "A person who lacks the motivation for change is very difficult to help."

Dr. Rapaport said that, for Preston, "the prognosis for rehabilitation is not good. It's not hopeless, but the general outlook is not good."

The Oakland psychiatrist said Preston lied to him, showed no remorse over the killings of Curtis and Shirley Ackley and indicated he has not benefitted from experience.

To the young killer's benefit was the testimony Wednesday and yesterday of Dr. Thomas Lowry, director of Ross General Hospital's psychiatric ward.

"His(Preston's) potential for rehabilitation is above average compared to other people convicted of similar crimes and perhaps above average for the population in general," Dr. Lowry said.

Judge Wilson called on the psychiatrists to suggest a possible motivation for Preston's crimes as well as to offer a prognosis for his possible rehabilitation.

Testimony at the trial has indicated Preston came from a good Santa Rosa family, led an exemplary life until he joined the Grim Reapers motorcycle gang last fall, and has above average intelligence.

All psychiatrists declined to commit themselves on possible motivation, though doctors Rapaport and Caesar described the youth as a sociopath — a man without conscience, who takes what he wants when he wants it, without concern for others, who doesn't have normal controls and who doesn't learn from experience.

Dr. Lowry dismissed the thought that the youth might be a sociopath and suggested that, contributing to his crimes, might have been a series of disappointments.

Preston was the smallest boy in his class until he matured to full growth in his last year of high school. When he entered the Army, he became ill, lost weight and was reduced to his previous physical stature. This depressed him, Dr. Lowry said.

Other disappointments were being laid off because of bad weather as he began a career as a carpenter, being discharged from the Army for medical reasons and finding he could not make the grade when he enrolled in six academic courses at Santa Rosa Junior College, said Dr. Lowry.

Dr. Caesar said he could only suggest such superficial motives as "personal gain, sexual gratification and protection from apprehension and punishment. But I'm sure everyone in this room realizes there must be deeper reasons."

But a sociopath doesn't need much motivation, he said. Such a psychopath, who is not mentally ill, acts on the spur of the moment and does not think of the consequences.

It would be unusual, but not impossible, for Preston to have lived the first 20 years of his life without ever committing a crime, Dr. Caesar said.

Dr. Rapaport told the jury: "I don't know what motivated Mr. Preston to do these things. He would be about the only person who could tell that."

Preston still denies killing the Ackleys, he reported.

But even if Preston were innocent, Dr. Rapaport said, "I would expect remorse or sympathy or concern with the troubles of someone else."

Wouldn't the fact that Preston had a good home life indicate he might be a better candidate than most for rehabilitation? the doctor was asked.

"If a stable home life was the answer, he never would have been involved in these crimes, would he?" Dr. Rapaport said.

The psychiatrist said it is possible that Preston's sociopathic tendencies were dormant for 20 years until "he joined the motorcycle club and got into the element that his constitution truly fitted."

New Harris Trial Ruling On July 11

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — U.S. District Judge Oliver J. Carter, says he will rule July 11 on a motion argued yesterday seeking a new trial for David V. Harris, convicted May 29 for refusing to report for induction.

Harris, 22-year-old antidraft leader and recently married to folksinger Joan Baez, was sentenced to three years in prison and is free on his own recognizance pending appeal.

Summer Program Is Underway

The summer playground program, sponsored by the Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Department, is now underway at Alto, Homestead and Old Mill schools and Boyle Park, John Garber, recreation supervisor, has announced.

The program runs from 1 to 6 p.m. Mondays through Fridays.

Marin Dining And Wining

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Shirley Aguirre Hopes To Fill Need For West Marin Diners

West Marin residents will find a new place to eat in Forest Knolls, called Shirley's.

Actually there is no requirement that you live in the area to be a customer. But owner Shirley Aguierre believed there was a local need for moderately priced food service between San Geronimo and Lagunitas, so she took over the former Country Kitchen, redecorated it, chaged the name and placed it on a regular seven days a week schedule.

It is now a full-fledged restaurant, she says, not a coffee shop. She keeps open from 8 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., serving breakfast, lunch and dinner. These hours may be extended later on Fridays and Saturdays if needed. She has both counter and tables and also outside tables.

Dinner specialties cost up to $3, including vegetables, potato, salad and coffee.

The inside is being redecorated in an American Indian motif, with a touch of San Geronimo Valley scenery.

Tomorrow and Sunday are her grand opening days. Dinner specialty for the occasion at $3 is prime rib of beef.

Shirley has been in the restaurant business before, but recently has been involved in catering service in central Marin. Helping her in the restaurant is her young niece, Kimberly Brown, from Colorado.

She has many plans for improving future service and this could turn into a nice little operation, attracting both local and outside diners.

ALSO NEWLY OPEN and in business about two weeks is the Jade Kitchen, a Chinese restaurant at 5605 Paradise Drive, Corte Madera.

This is a project of Ron Chang of San Francisco. Two other Jade Kitchens are in San Francisco and there is one in Rohnert Park.

Food is served for eating on the premises and also for taking home. Hours are from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. for lunches and from 4 to 8 p.m. for dinner, with the restaurant closed Wednesdays. If you phone your take-home order ahead, it will be ready when you arrive to pick it up.

The menu boasts all the popular Chinese a la carte dishes and also family style dinners for those not adept at making up their own combinations. Ron also is serving two combination plate specials at $1.15 and $1.35, available at both lunch and dinner hours.

THE RECENT DEATH of Rudy Bush, founder of the Buckeye and affectionately regarded by just about everyone who ever lunched or dined there more than once in the past 30 years, is a great loss for the Marin restaurant industry.

The Buckeye will go on under Gertrude, his wife, and son Rudy Jr. but the old-timers will miss Rudy as one of the county's fine hosts. In the three decades of his operation he probably made more friends than any other Marinite in his profession. Many of those friendships were originally formed with executive personnel in the days of Marinship. When the shipyard was closed and many men returned to other areas, a visit to Marin in later years simply had to include another call at the Buckeye "to chat with Rudy."

He was a quiet man and restrained in his conversation, but these qualities gave solid substance to his personality and he was esteemed all the more for them. He will be long remembered, both by the restaurant industry and by the many guests over the years who enjoyed his hospitality.

IT TAKES TIME for a restaurant to mellow and develop its "thing," as the younger generation might express it. Repeat visits spaced at long intervals often become new experiences.

If you are so blase as to believe that you have sampled everything the county has to offer in dining, it might just be that you should start all over again and bring yourself up to date.

As an example, if you haven't eaten recently at Ramona's in San Rafael, depending upon the length of your absence, it's possible you might not even recognize the place. Frequent habitues know that the present decorative detailing has not been accomplished all at once, but if you have been absent for say two years there's a big surprise in store for you.

The latest improvement, newly tiled tables, makes quite a little impact in itself. But this is only one in a series of chages Ramona has managed to dream up when getting her mind away from seeing that everyone is served and happy.

There is more help here these days, for the place is busier than ever. What may be a slow evening for another restaurant often turns out to be a crowded one at Ramona's. This sort of thing happens where specialty menus are served — particularly with Mexican and Spanish food. Someone labeled such places "mood restaurants" because of their supposed appeal to jaded palates crying out for something different. I don't know about that — the way Ramona's is now, if you're an infrequent visitor you might very easily become a convert.

TOMORROW NIGHT will be the last chance to eat at McKee's in San Rafael for the next two weeks. Jim and Jean McKee are closing so everyone on the staff can take a vacation at the same time. They are heading for a place on the Russian River and I understand chef Don Caseldine is off for Bermuda. Reopening will be on Tuesday, July 16.

McKee's will close out its regular menu about 2 p.m. tomorrow and then tomorrow night will see a special closing party on the cold cuts.

BEGINNING SUNDAY, two succulent roasts, with roast beef every night, will be carved to order at dinner by the chef at the Hansa House Family Buffet Restaurant in the Northgate Fashion Mall.

Baked ham and hot roast turkey are among the additional offerings on the dinner menu, which also features more than 20 salads and five hot entrees along with sundry vegetables, hot rolls and so on.

In case you have forgotten the price schedule here, the dinner tab is $2.25 for adults and 20 cents for each year of age for children. Lunch is $1.10 for adults and 10 cents per year for children. The Hansa House is open for dinner thrugh the week from 4:30 to 8:30 p.m. and on Sundays from 11:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. Lunches are from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

FRANCHINI'S CHATEAU at Highway 101 and Lucas Valley Road will be closed next Thursday, July 4, but will open again Friday.

RUBINI'S in Fairfax will close Monday through Thursday next week and reopen on Friday, July 5. New artist displaying her paintings during the coming month will be Opal Teter, who has had a number of Bay Area shows.

A NEW SCHEDULE of performances at the Lion's Share in Sausalito now puts the entertainment periods at 9 p.m., 10:30 p.m. and 12:30 a.m. every night.

Rambling Jack Elliott, recording star and folk singer, will perform tonight. Saturday and Sunday afternoon shows and the weekend 2 a.m. breakfast shows will still continue.

OVER THE HOLIDAY WEEKEND (July 3-6), the Ark in Sausalito will present what is described as "an old-fashioned, down-home, funky celebration."

It will star Columbia recording artist Gale Garnett and her Gentle Reign group. Sharing the bill will be Dan Hicks and his Hot Licks, the Charlatans and the Flamin' Groovies. On all four nights the performances will run through the Ark's usual after-hours breakfast show from 2 to 6 a.m.

Tonight's and tomorrow night's dance concerts from 9 p.m. to 6 a.m. will feature the Freedom Highway, Fruminous Bandersnatch and Transatlantic Railway.

Superintendent Given Hiring Job

The Bolinas-Stinson School District board has returned the responsibility for hiring and assigning employees to the district superintendent, Supt. Clarance B. Larison reported.

The board had assumed that responsibility last year when Supt. Keith Oveson became ill. Larison was named superintendent replacing Oveson earlier this month.

The board will ratify the actions of the superintendent as required by state law, Larison said.

The board spent the rest of its special meeting on Wednesday briefing Larison on the district's operation, he said.

The board also set three special meetings for July 23, Aug. 27 and Sept. 24 for discussions with the public and staff. The meetings will be at 8 p.m. in Bolinas School.

County Weatherman Explains Services

Michael Pechner, Marin County's new official weatherman for one month this summer and one month next winter, said today that his offer to the County Supervisors when they hired him Tuesday to provide weather information to "anyone" was meant for "any department or person connected with the county government."

Pechner, who now lives in Terra Linda, said that private parties may purchase weather information from his business, Marin Meteorology.

Airline Pays For Costly Firefighting

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The Forest Service said yesterday it has collected $176,000 from a Santa Monica-based charter airline for the cost of suppressing a fire in the Los Padres National Forest four years ago.

The federal government filed suit against the company, Santa Monica Flyers, last August claiming that negligence by the airline had caused the 356-acre fire. The company was ordered to reimburse the Forest Service for the costs of fighting the blaze.

Federal and state laws provide that a party who negligently sets, causes or fails to control a fire is liable for damages, including the cost of fire suppression. The fire was started by the crash of a light plane operated by Santa Monica Flyers. Both occupants of the plane were killed.

Because of the inaccessibility of the terrain, it took several days to control the fire. About 600 men and several aerial tankers were employed to fight the blaze.

All of the firefighters had to be ferried in by helicopter.

Use Of Antibiotics Vs. Consumer Meats

WASHINGTON (AP)—A steak charcoaled to perfection in a backyard cookout possibly could be harmful if it came from a steer treated with massive doses of antibiotics, says the Food and Drug Administration.

"If residues of antibiotics exist in meat, we have to assume they are harmful unless proved otherwise," an FDA spokesman said.

The FDA views with suspicion and reacts with legal cudgels to adulteration of food for human use. Traces of antibiotics in meat or other food can constitute such adulteration, the FDA says.

Consequently, the agency has proposed amendments to FDA regulations which would restrict the use of antibiotics in the production of meat, milk and eggs.

Included would be some streptomycin and penicillin products, which frequently are used to control livestock disease.

The FDA's proposed ban will go into effect possibly this fall, barring further legal snarls, the spokesman said. The agency announced June 10 a 60-day extension—to Aug. 11—of the time allowed for further comments.

The FDA says people who are sensitive or allergic to certain drugs might be affected by even the smallest residues of antibiotics.

Traces of penicillin in milk have been found occasionally in recent years and state departments of agriculture have co-operated in controls.

Farmers, generally, have become educated to the proper uses of veterinary medicines, authorities say.

But the restrictions offered by FDA are not clear on at least one point: What exactly is a "meat animal" and would the antibiotics be allowed for breeding stock?

"As it stands now, the use of these injections would be prohibited on food-producing animals," the FDA spokesman said. "We aren't able to say yet how long before slaughter an animal could receive dosages."

Van Gogh Painting Sold For $277,000

LONDON (UPI)—New York dealer Stephen Hahn paid $277,000 for a Van Gogh "portrait of his mother" at a Christie's sale today.

The Van Gogh portrait was formerly the property of the Rev. Theodore Pitcairn of Bryn Athen, Pa., who picked up the painting at bargain price in prewar Paris. He sold the painting to raise funds for a foundation he has started, sources said.

A LANDMARK IS DOOMED

Men and machines were at work today removing tracks from Southern Pacific Railroad's old structure that has given Trestle Glen on the Tiburon Peninsula its name. The trestle itself, built in the 1880's is scheduled for dismantling next week. In due course, all of the branch tracks from Paradise Drive in Corte Madera to the old railroad yard in downtown Tiburon are to be removed. The railroad was given permission in 1966 by the Interstate Commerce Commission to abandon the line. (Independent-Journal photo by Pete Thompson)

Reagan Aide Decries High Crime Rate

By GLENN BECKER

Edwin Meese III, legal affairs adviser to Gov. Ronald Reagan, told the Marin County Peace Officers Association last night that the American people are waking up to the crime problem in this country, but called it "ironic and pathetic that it takes a tragedy like the assassination of Robert F. Kennedy to arouse people."

Meese deplored the public's attitude toward law enforcement, which he said "is only belatedly receiving the attention it deserves from the people and the legislators."

"Belatedly," he said, because crime in the United States is outstripping population growth 8-1; crimes of violence have increased 73 per cent since 1960, and they will have doubled by 1970.

The dinner meeting at the Taberna restaurant in San Rafael was held in circumstances that lent substance to Meese's grim assessment of current law enforcement problems.

With 30 California Highway Patrolmen from Marin in Richmond to help quell rioting in the black neighborhoods there, and other officers from Marin municipal forces on call for Richmond duty, it was uncertain until 5 p.m. whether there would even be a meeting.

Master of Ceremonies James C. Dukes, CHP sergeant, was in Richmond for 12 hours and did not return until about 7 p.m.

Meese stated explicitly what the Reagan administration's attitude toward urban disorders will be.

Every time police have held back in such crises, he said, conditions have worsened. He said that the greatest contributing factor in the Washington, D.C. riots after the murder of Dr. Martin Luther King was "the idea spread on television and in the newspapers of people looting stores with impunity.

"When you have a riot, you move in with enough force and you put it down when it is small. The result will be preservation of life and property."

Meese said that 80 per cent of California crime is committed by males aged 14-29. "The people we have depended on to support law enforcement are letting us down," he said, mentioning teachers, public officials and ministers "who now use every excuse to eliminate individual responsibility."

He warned that this young age group where crime is heaviest is growing twice as fast as the rest of the population. Meese, who as assistant district attorney in Alameda County prosecuted the University of California Sproul Hall sit-in cases, then smiled slightly and said, "We don't trust anybody under 30."

Meese sounded an occasional hopeful note, especially approving the recently-passed federal anti-crime bill and the work of the year-old California Council on Criminal Justice. This body includes representatives of all groups and professions concerned with law enforcement, both on the streets and in the courts.

Meese received a standing ovation from the gathering of 60, including some wives and guests of the association members, when he finished his half-hour talk.

Planners' Agenda

Proposed revisions of use permit requirements and amendments to the zoning ordinance will be discussed by the San Anselmo Planning Commission at 8 p.m. Monday in the city hall.

Richmond Calm Under Heavy Guard

RICHMOND (AP) — Heavy police patrols maintained calm last night and today after two previous nights of racial unrest.

There were a number of curfew violators arrested and a number of fires reported, but no major troubles, officers said.

One house fire, which police said was unrelated to the unrest, drew a large crowd, yesterday. No serious trouble erupted.

The trouble began Tuesday night in predominantly Negro North Richmond after a teenager was shot and wounded by police. Officers said the youngster refused to stop while running from a car believed stolen.

Since then police made more than 100 arrests and firemen battled a score of fires in the two nights of firebombing, looting and sniping. No serious injures were reported

Sons Of Italy Fete

Ray's Defense Raises Political Unrest Issue

LONDON (AP) —The British attorney for James Earl Ray contends the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was a political offense and that the 40-year-old escaped convict therefore should not be returned to the United States.

In his first testimony in the extradition hearing in Bow Street Court yesterday, Ray denied he killed King in Memphis, Tenn., April 4.

"I have never had any kind of grudge against him," Ray told Judge Frank Milton.

Near the close of yesterday's hearing, Ray's defense lawyer Roger Frisby told the court: "I am suggesting that this offense was one of a political character and therefore does not become an extraditable offense."

Under the British-American extradition treaty, a fugitive may not be extradited for a political crime.

The hearing will be resumed Tuesday. If the decision goes against Ray, it is expected an appeal will be made to a higher court. Fifteen days are allowed for such an appeal.

Frisby contended in his submissions to Milton that murder can be a political offense for the purpose of extradition. Any act committed for a political motive during a period of political unrest, he said, is a political offense.

Drake Collision Injures Cyclist

A San Rafael man was hospitalized today after his eastbound motorcycle collided with a westbound car on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, at the bottom of White's Hill, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Raymond J. Muller, 25, of 1517 Fifth Avenue, was reported in fair condition at Marin General Hospital today with an injured left leg.

In the accident, at 12:25 a.m., the car was driven by Daniel S. Atremba, 25, of 168 Central Avenue, Woodacre, according to the patrol's report.

Small Loss In Market; Trading Slow

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed with a small loss today in trading that was slow in comparison to the heavy volume of recent weeks.

Changes of most key issues were fractional but there were some wide swings involving issues in special situations.

Oils, tobaccos, aircrafts and drugs were mostly higher. Airlines declined. Most other groups were mixed.

Although trading volume started off at a swift pace, with the New York Stock Exchange ticker tape lagging in reporting floor transactions, it slowed to one of the lowest rates in recent weeks.

Only aircrafts, oils and drugs were able to maintain their position on the plus side. Nonferrous metals and airlines declined. Most other groups were mixed.

Fairchild Camera, whose prospects were discussed in a financial publication, fell 6⅛ to 58 on a block of 94,900 shares but later pared its loss to 3¾.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

More Savings Needed For Purchasing Home

By ROGER SPEAR

Q. We are a young couple soon to be parents. Our financial position is: $10,400 savings, 100 Southland Corp., 30 McLean Ind., 103 Life Insurance Investors and 180 Dreyfus Fund with 3 years to finish our accumulation plan. We want to buy a $35,000 to $40,000 home in a few years. Are our stocks suitable? What are the prospects for insurance industry? We have $1,000 to invest; what do you suggest? —D.H.

A. Both your common stock holdings should be retained.

McLean reported a large increase in first-quarter earnings and has recently been awarded a $16 million contract by the Post Office Department. Southland, with an improving earnings picture, has agreed to purchase a Boston chain store operation.

Your insurance fund has reflected the lackluster performance of the industry as a whole. However, several recent developments improve the long-range prospects, and shares should be held. When you are ready to buy a home, you should investigate with your fund salesman whether or not your plan offers borrowing privileges. Most banks currently are requiring 20 per cent down on conventional home mortgages which would leave you with an inadequate backlog for emergencies. New home buyers are inclined to overlook the fact that home ownership entails repeated outlays for upkeep and improvement.

Thus, I believe that additional funds should be used to build up your savings.

Q. As a birthday present I gave my son some money. He follows the market and thinks I should buy shares of Technicolor with it. Since he has just been sent to Vietnam, I thought he might enjoy hearing about "his stock" in my letters. It would give him something to look forward to. What do you think of his choice? —W.P.

A. Technicolor controls a color film processing method that is widely used by the movie industry. Earnings have not been consistent but last year reached a new high and were up 15 per cent in the March quarter. Shares have growth prospects and are not overpriced.

Aluminum Will Double In Cars

TORONTO (UPI) — The amount of aluminum in the average automobile will almost double in the next 10 years, reports Michael Irving, editor of Canadian Paint and Finishing magazine.

Irving says aluminum is receptive to a broader range of finishes than any other material in industrial use and predicts the amount of the metal in a car will grow from the present 71 to 125 pounds by 1977.

Referee Appointed In Juvenile Court

Judge Samuel W. Gardiner of Marin Superior Court, who two weeks ago launched a referee system for nonjury, civil trials, yesterday announced appointment of a juvenile court referee to ease the load of minors' cases.

Appointed and to serve without compensation is James D. Adams, attorney from San Rafael who has been serving as chairman of the Marin County Juvenile Justice Commission since November.

Adams, who resigned as chairman yesterday to accept the new post on a part-time basis, begins his new duties Monday.

Judge Gardiner, who has authority to make the appointment as juvenile judge, said Adams mostly will handle dependency cases in which the minor has no governing family or parent, or where cruelty to the child is involved.

Adams will use Gardiner's courthouse chambers, and details of use of a court clerk and reporter will be worked out, the judge said.

On June 13, Judge Gardiner revealed his plans to refer his nonjury, civil trials to referees so he could devote more time to the mounting backlog of criminal cases.

Since that time, he has used two referees. In addition he said, he has appointed seven experts in certain fields to make full investigation into cases he is handling, then report to him.

Judge Gardiner said he has observed that lawyers tend to appoint experts whose testimony is predictably partial to their clients. Uninvolved experts, chosen not by litigants but the court, are more impartial, he said. Experts appointed include a psychiatrist, an orthopedist, two contractors, a certified public accountant and two appraisers.

The magistrate said the combination of the two methods of appointment has already saved him an estimated 40 days of time.

Although the referee system, also used in other Bay Area counties to reduce crowded calendars, is reportedly unpopular with attorneys because litigants must pay referee fees, Judge Gardiner said the system apparently is working well and without major complaint in Marin County.

While referee fees will vary — the exact amount being worked out in conference with the litigants and the judge — Gardiner said he expects these to be in the neighborhood of $100 a day. Fees for experts, he said, vary greatly and will run somewhat higher than for referees.

The referee system has not been adopted by other Marin Superior Court judges.

Adams, of 125 Bayview Drive, joined the juvenile justice commission Sept. 18, 1963. He became chairman after the Nov. 20 death of chairman Roy A. Ibach. Judge Gardiner said he will not immediately replace Adams on the commission — which has eight members with Adams' resignation — and that the commission will name its own new chairman.

He said he and Adams will continue to attend many of the commission meetings.

Burglars Take Nearly $2,000 Worth Of Jewels

Three burglaries, including the theft of nearly $2,000 worth of jewelry and other items, were reported yesterday by sheriff's deputies.

Elizabeth and Ann McCartan told officers someone entered their home on Tamalpais Avenue at Bay View Road, Larkspur, on Monday. Taken were a $950 diamond ring, a $700 woman's watch, a $250 necklace, and $20 cash, according to the report.

No forced entry was evident.

Officers said burglars broke a kitchen window of a rental house on Carson Road in Woodacre, entering to steal a six-foot refrigerator. The break-in was reported Tuesday. Owner is Frank Dellange of Daly City.

A window ventilator of a car owned by Trygve B. Larson, 51 Vendola Drive, Santa Venetia, was broken for entry Monday at Stinson Beach. Stolen was an $85 auto stereophonic set.

Kentfield Citizen Helps Students

Alfred S. Wilsey of 25 Upland Road, Kentfield, has established a loan fund for students in need of finances at the University of San Francisco.

Named in honor of his late wife, Lorraine, the fund now stands at $8,000. Contributions can be made through the University of San Francisco development office.

MOTION PICTURE GUIDE

The Marin Motion Picture and Television Council provides these ratings of movies currently being shown in Marin County. The council's findings are from California and National P-TA magazines and the "film report" of the Film Estimate Board of national organizations. More complete reviews may be obtained by calling the San Rafael or Mill Valley libraries.

FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

"Around the World in 80 Days"—The outstanding cast in this masterpiece of showmanship uses the transportation of 1872 to travel from London around the world, hitting such places as Bombay, Calcutta, Bangkok, San Francisco, New York and Liverpool. It is comedy at its merriest.

"Gentle Giant" — Seven-year-old Mark, pitifully lonely since the death of his older brother, becomes passionately attached to a bear cub after its mother has been killed by poachers in the game preserve. Mark secretly takes loving care of the cub who is being held captive by another poacher, until the bear becomes too big and must be sent to a zoo.

"Never a Dull Moment"—Instead of picking up a clever thief, two gangsters pick up a little known actor and take him to their boss, who plans to use him to steal a valuable painting from a museum. Dick Van Dyke will delight everyone as he outmaneuvers the crooks in the chase scenes and loads the stupid gangsters into the van which was intended to haul away the painting.

ADULTS AND TEENS

"Elvira Madigan" — Tragic love story in a Swedish film of rare beauty . . . charm of leading players, the haunting score based on a theme by Mozart, fusion of exquisite color heighten effect of this deeply touching idyll.

"Far From the Madding Crowd" — Thomas Hardy's romantic leisurely novel made into a film in which the beautiful English countryside has more reality than the characters. Bethsheba Everdene, the imperious, selfish and willful heroine disturbs the lives of three men, though she marries only one. Memorable photography.

"Guess Who's Coming to Dinner" — Spencer Tracy's last film, a crowning achievement, is a tasteful rendering of a contemporary problem. Moving story of parents' reactions to a racially mixed marriage . . . fine supporting cast completely involve the viewer in this rare film.

"Madigan"—Set in New York City, this is a gripping suspense story about two of the best police detectives on the force. They are assigned by the commissioner to track down and capture a psychopathic killer. Action is so tense that it is at times too real.

BORDERLINE
(Some say adults only)

"Fistful of Dollars"—Dubbed-in English . . . produced in Spain . . . brutal melodrama follows the routine Hollywood western plot . . . usual shooting, blood and sadism, only worse. Clint Eastwood . . . brutal.

ADULTS ONLY

"Boom"—Beautiful scenery is wasted on this vulgar and stupid story revolving around a plump and wealthy shrew who dictates to her secretary memoirs of her lurid life with her five husbands.

"Darling" — Satirical film traces the unsavory career of a playgirl who is a beautiful, amoral tramp who claws her way through many escapades and marriages . . . downbeat in its impact . . . superbly photographed.

"Graduate" — This satirical comedy is subject to various interpretations. Young man returning from college becomes involved in a torrid affair with dissipated wife of his father's business partner. Some of the dialogue and unorthodox use of Christian symbols may be offensive . . . scenes of night club entertainer distasteful.

"Secret War of Harry Frigg" —Well-intentioned comic look at human foibles attached to matters of military rank is mostly lighthearted escapism, but Paul Newman's antiestablishment hero is nicely played.

By 1976, the number of foreigners visiting the United States will total 16 million — compared with under nine million in 1967.

CAVE-IN AT FLOOD PROJECT

This area has collapsed along Corte Madera Creek for the second time since the Army Corps of Engineers started the Corte Madera Creek flood control project. According to spokesmen in the Marin County flood control office, the corps is now deciding how to repair the bank, which is behind the Bon Air Shopping Center.

Carpenters Given Record Pay Offer

Carpenters in Marin and four other Bay Area counties have been offered a $2.035 hourly increase in wages and fringe benefits by employers, to avert a threatened strike.

The proposal, part of a three-year contract, has been described by union and management spokesmen as the largest in the history of their bargaining.

A total of 20,000 members of 29 Carpenters Union construction locals in the Bay Area — including 1,200 workers in Marin —will be asked to vote on the proposal Tuesday in union halls.

Marin voting will be held at the San Rafael hall of Local 35 at 647 Lindaro Street from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Al Figone, president of the Bay Counties District Council of Carpenters, said the bargaining committee will recommend acceptance of the terms.

Bay Area carpenters, following negotiators' recommendations, rejected a $1.88 hourly package offer Monday. The workers had authorized their negotiating conference board to call a strike in the event of unacceptable terms.

Under the proposed agreement, journeymen carpenters would receive a 50.5-cent increase this year and additional raises of 50 cents next year and 75 cents in 1970. The journeyman currently earn $5.205 hourly.

The package also includes increases totaling 27 cents an hour in employer contributions toward health and welfare coverage and pensions. An additional cent per hour is proposed for third-year apprenticeship and journeyman training.

Meanwhile, no progress was reported today in bargaining among Operating Engineers Local 3 in San Francisco, the Associated General Contractors, California Contractors Council and the Engineering and Grading Contractors Association.

About 80 heavy equipment operators were pulled off the job in Marin County Monday after three employers would not sign a 90-day interim agreement for a negotiating period.

Contractor Mario Ghilotti of San Rafael, whose firm was among the three, charged the removal of the men was an attempt to divide management in negotiations. The other firms affected are A. J. Bresnan of San Rafael and Merz Brothers of San Francisco.

Ghilotti said the interium agreement had been offered to individual firms rather than to their negotiating body.

Muir Beach Raid Suspects Freed By Goldstein

Charges against three of four persons arrested in a May 24 melee at Muir Beach were dismissed in Marin Municipal Court yesterday because of insufficient evidence in a preliminary hearing.

Dismissed by Judge Alvin H. Goldstein Jr. were a charge of attempted assault and battery on a police officer against Lynn Henri Swenson, 19, of Fairfax; charges of battery and sale of marijuana against David Cole Hambridge, 18, of Novato; and a charge of selling mescaline against Joseph William Carnes, 22, of no fixed address.

Decision on whether to bind the fourth person, Darrel Richard Chase, 19, of Fairfax, over to Superior Court on a charge of marijuana possession was scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Sheriff's officers and county narcotics bureau agents arrested the four in a Muir Beach rock dance raid.

Innocent Plea To Marijuana Sale

Eric Stephen Tainter, 20, of no fixed address, pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Municipal Court to a charge of selling marijuana. Preliminary hearing was scheduled to setting this afternoon.

Tainter and Barry Lowell Bastian, 25, of 79 Live Oak Avenue, Fairfax, are jointly accused of making the sale Feb. 7. Bastian is scheduled for preliminary hearing at 1:30 p.m. July 29.

Fairfax Mayor Promises Effort For City Pay Hike

Fairfax Mayor Robert R. Souza has assured Fairfax city employees that he will push for a 5 per cent salary increase for them for next year.

The pledge was in a letter to all city officials and employees, in which Souza also:

Promised that the city council will not hold secret meetings, and denied that it had in the past.

Announced that extra copies of the proposed 1968-69 budget will be available for the public at the council's budget sessions.

Expressed his appreciation for the work of the remaining city employees after the departure of City Administrator David J. Sumbardo.

Souza said the council will "critically review the cost of personnel needs and services" with the aim of ending the practice of the past two years of taking money from reserve funds to balance the budget.

The council will meet at 7:30 p.m. today in the Fairfax Women's Club to discuss the budget.

Injured Cyclist Remains Critical

A 20-year-old Sausalito man was reported still in critical condition today at Marin General Hospital as a result of a motorcycle accident Wednesday in Sausalito. A companion was reported in fair condition.

Under intensive care for severe head injuries was John Thomas of 50 Bulkley Avenue. In fair condition with a cut scalp and scraped face was Marion Bauch, 21, of 209 Third Street, Sausalito.

Police said the accident happened at 6:45 p.m. at Platt and Curry avenues, but could not give details until the victims were in condition to be interviewed.

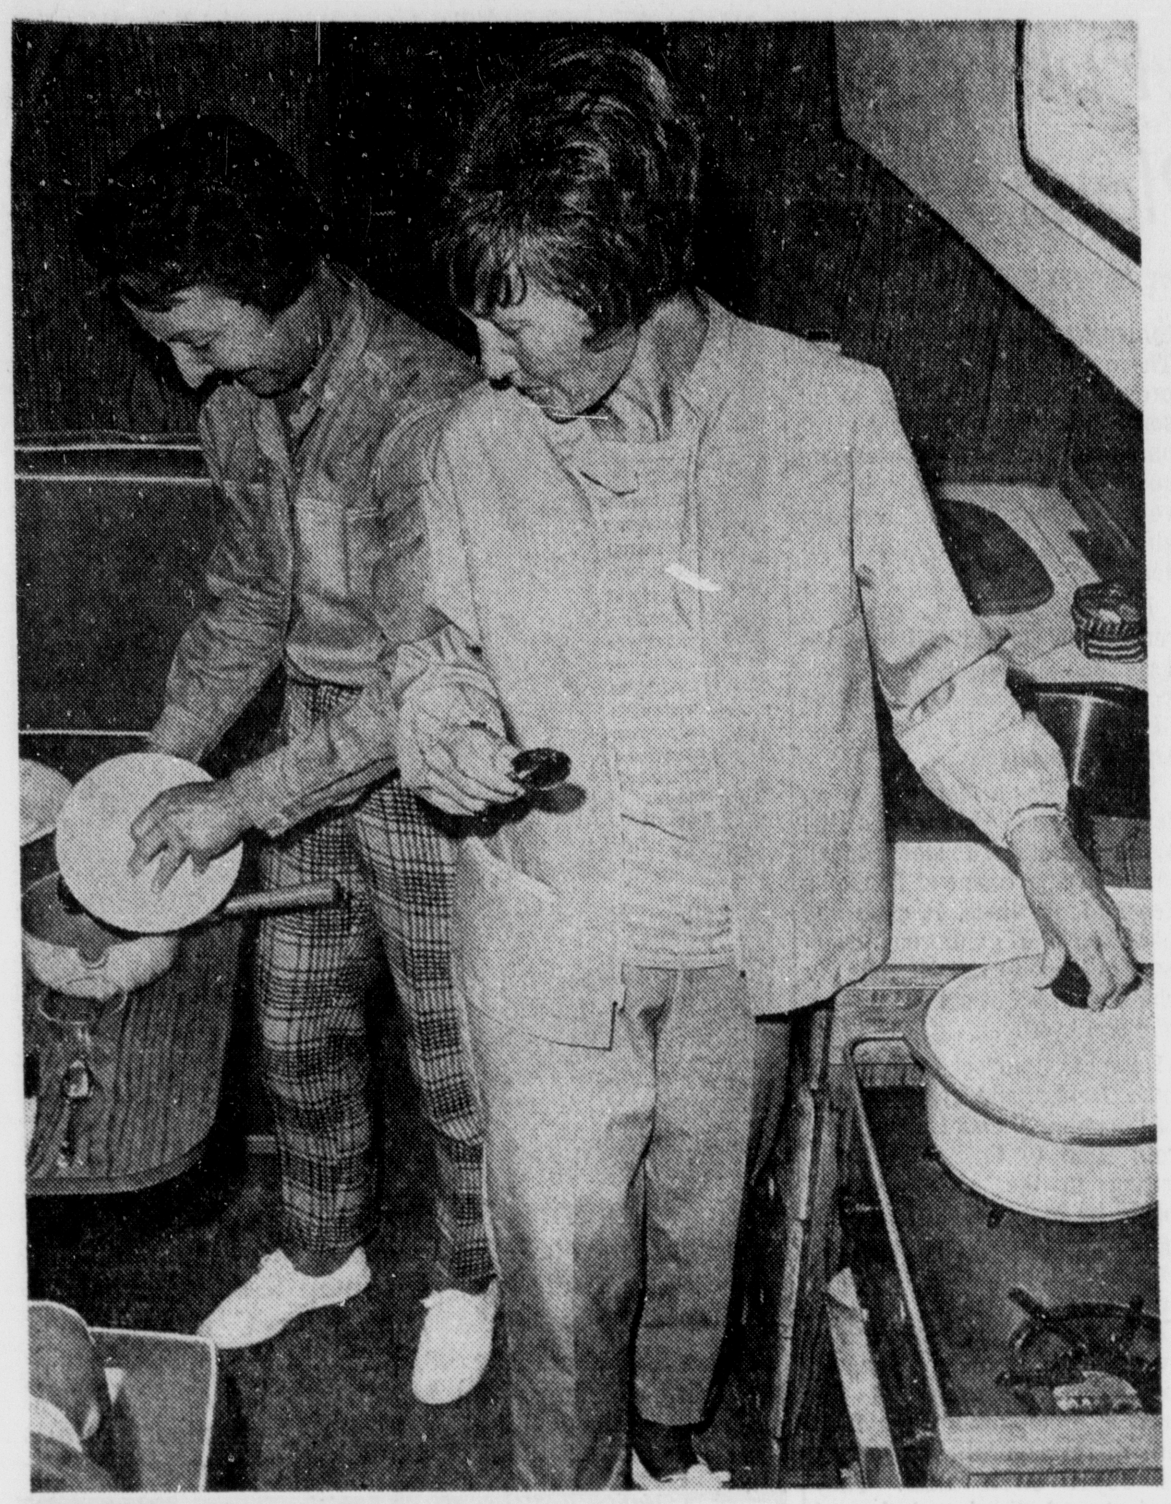
Food Tips For Up-The-River Cruising



IN THE SHIPSHAPE galley of the yacht, Chance II, Mrs. John Hall and Mrs. Ross Chamberlain test some recipes from the Cruising Cook Book published by the Women's Auxiliary of the Richmond Yacht Club. Practical menus and hints for cruising comfort, applicable to Bay yachtsmen vacationing in the Delta region, have also found favor with campers and owners of mountain cabins.

By BETTY FROST

July is the traditional month for Bay yachtsmen to head "up the river." Racing skippers take advantage of the month-long breather between the two halves of the hectic Yacht Racing Association season to cruise their boats in California's Delta region. Power craft of all kinds, from small outboards to commodious houseboats also make up the caravan heading up the waterways to the vacation spot.

On the distaff side the "camping on a boat" experience can become a long blur of preparing meals for a hungry family, and entertainging boat-hopping guests. Galley facilities and stowage space are usually limited, and the nearest market nautical miles away.

HOW CAN the river holiday be turned into a happy time for all hands? "Planning," say the members of the Women's Auxiliary of Richmond Yacht Club, who have published a down-to-earth guide for sea cooks, "Cruising Cuisine."

More than a cook book, the compact publication which comes with its own waterproof case, "Cruising Cuisine" includes an up-river equipment check list, techniques for a variety of special requirements from prolonging the "cold life" of ice in the ice chest to storing fresh fruit, and a thoroughly researched chapter on available instant foods.

The ambitious undertaking was motivated by a request to the auxiliary from the yacht club's all-male board for assistance in furnishing the teen room in the new clubhouse. Ways of raising funds for the youth project were discussed by the women, and the idea of sharing their know-how with other river vacationers was chosen. Mrs. John Williams of Orinda and Mrs. John Hall of El Cerrito were named co-chairmen. Mrs. Ross Chamberlain of San Rafael is Marin chairman in charge of the book's distribution, and also contributed the chapter on Instant Foods, which, she says, "contains everything from Noodles Romanoff to chocolate covered ants."

Once the project had been selected in the spring of 1967, the research began. All summer the women cruising the Delta lands under the Richmond Yacht Club burgee, had a ladle in one hand and a pencil in the other. They kept records, experimenting with different products and combinations, noting the successful ones for inclusion in the book. Mrs. Robert Miller of El Cerrito, a veteran of 30 years of river cruising, contributed her personal check list which includes a potpourri of items — oars, mosquito netting, salt tablets, aluminum foil and air mattresses — to name a few.

By December the first edition was available. "Our success was unbelievable," said co-chairman, Betty Hall, when we discussed "Cruising Cuisine" on board the Chamberlains' Vanguard class yacht, "Chance II," temporarily berthed at Sausalito. "We had a tiger by the tail," Mrs. Hall continued, "we had orders from all over the United States. People found that our ideas for happy river cruising were also applicable for camping and mountain cabins. We had sold almost the entire 500 copies in the original printing and still had a backlog of orders."

The women worked this spring to up-date and revise the original book. The second edition came out last week. It is available at the Richmond Yacht Club, Richmond, for $3.15 a copy, or can be ordered by mail for $3.30.

HAMBURGER STROGANOFF

(Cooking time 25 minutes, 1 burner)

1 lb. ground beef
1 clove garlic, minced
6 or 7 green onions with tops, minced (or instant onion)
1 tsp. salt
2 tablespoons flour
¼ tsp. monosodium glutamate
¼ tsp. pepper
½ lb. sliced mushrooms (or 1 4-oz. can)
1 can condensed cream of chicken soup
1 cup sour cream or yogurt

Brown meat with onions and garlic. Add next six ingredients and saute five minutes. Add can of cream of chicken soup and simmer, uncovered, for 10 minutes. Stir is sour cream or yogurt. Sprinkle with parsley, chives of dill and serve on mashed potatoes, rice, spaghetti or toast. Serves four.

HAM AND YAMS IN BEER

(Cooking time 45 minutes, 1 burner)

1 canned ham
1 small can pineapple rings
Brown sugar
1 large can yams
Raisins, cloves, salt, pepper
1 can beer

Use a heavy skillet with cover. Place ham in center of skillet and surround with yams, drained. Sprinkle generously with raisins, brown sugar and a few cloves. Top ham with drained pineapple rings. Pour about ½ can beer and a little pineapple juice over the whole works. Cover and cook over low heat about 45 minutes to an hour.

SHRIMP-ORANGE SALAD

2 cans shrimp, drained
1½ cups sliced celery
1 can Mandarin oranges, drained
1½ cups slivered almonds
1 cup mayonnaise
¼ cup juice from oranges
½ tsp. grated orange peel

BREAKFAST HASH

(Cooking time 15 minutes, 1 burner)

1 can corned beef hash
½ cup grated cheddar or jack cheese
4 eggs

Spread out corned beef hash and brown slightly in pan. Cover with cheese; cook until cheese is melted. Make small holes in hash, add an egg to each, then add more cheese and cook until eggs are done.

CHECKING THE ingredients for hamburger stroganoff is Mrs. Ross Chamberlain of San Rafael, as Mrs. John Hall of El Cerrito prepares the dish. The two are members of a committee of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Richmond Yacht Club, who put together the book on Cruising Cuisine. The book, researched by auxiliary members all last summer, is based upon experience of the boating families who cruise the rivers of California. The first edition, issued less than six months ago, was such a success that a second edition, revised and updated was released last week.

Hints For The Galley Slave

ALWAYS STORE crackers above the waterline in covered plastic containers.

DOUBLE THE cold life of ice in a portable ice box. Pre-chill food, pre-chill ice box, freeze canned soft drinks. Put a layer of dry ice in the bottom of the box, with food and regular ice on top. Be sure foods are well covered. As the water melts from the ice, it will run to the bottom and refreeze when it hits the dry ice.

POTATOES will bake faster if soaked in hot water for 15 minutes before cooking. This saves time and keeps the boat cabin from overheating.

USE INDIVIDUAL wide mouth vacuum bottles for meals for racing crews. One and a half pints is a good size for one serving. Each crew member should have his own. Food will stay hot for eight to 10 hours. Stew, thick soups, and macaroni and cheese are among the hot dishes suitable for serving this way.

THE SUBURBAN SCENE

Marin Is The Crossroads For Summer Vacationing Visitors

By MOLLY MARIN

Visiting Mrs. Eugene Burns (concert pianist Olga Burns) in Sausalito are her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Matthews Jr. (Stephanie Burns), who stopped briefly on their way from New York to Hong Kong to live.

Matthews was at Columbia University in the department of Chinese and Japanese for two years and for the past year has been in the journalism school there. He completed work for a master's degree in modern Chinese history and has a certificate as a regional expert on China. He speaks Mandarin fluently and says that it was very difficult to learn. He expects to be doing free lance writing for newspapers and periodicals.

A graduate of Tamalpais High School, he is the son of Tom Matthews of New York. He received a BA degree in English from Princeton University before going to Columbia.

Stephanie and her twin sister Carol Burns, who were well known professional skating stars with the Ice Follies, have taken up other interests. Stephanie creates welded sculpture, and Carol is now with the Whitney Museum in New York.

THE THOMAS Kearneys of Mill Valley are having a party tonight honoring Mr. and Mrs. Robert McNear of Chicago, Ill., formerly of San Francisco

Marin County guests include Messrs. and Mesdames Elliott Haynes of San Rafael, Thomas Dorst of Tiburon, Dennis Day of San Anselmo and Albert Seidel of Ross.

MRS. HOMER Hixon of Tiburon was honored on her 60th birthday today when her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bruce Hixon invited 45 Marin friends to their Marinwood home. Guests gathered in the garden to drink a toast to the honoree.

SPENDING THE summer with the Harry C. Smiths in Mill Valley are their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Parrish and their little son, Scott.

Parrish has just received a Ph.D. in history from Yale University on a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship and will be assistant professor of history on the San Diego campus of the University of California in the fall.

While he was studying at Yale, his wife Caryl Jane, who had completed three years at the University of California at Riverside, received special permission to take her senior year work at Yale and was graduated this month from the University of California at Riverside.

During the summer Caryl Jane will be chairman of one of the first Dick Ford dance classes taught by the Fords' daughter Deneen, in which three-year-old Scott is enrolled. Eighteen years ago, Mrs. Smith was chairman of the first dance class taught in Mill Valley by Dick Ford, and Caryl Jane was enrolled in that class.

FOUR HUNDRED attended the Marin premiere of "Petulia" in Sausalito Wednesday night, which was a benefit for the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society. Champagne and canapes were served on the tennis court to the 300 guests who attended the pre-theater reception at the Keil Estate in Tiburon. The lovely old home, used in many scenes in the picture, was open to all. It is now furnished once again with the Keil family's furniture, paintings, art objects and antiques.

Assisting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Keil, were the three Keil children — Gay, greeting many of the young people, Molly and her husband, William Hynes, who have recently moved to Tiburon from the East Bay, and Russ, who has just returned from a trip to Europe.

Three local homes were considered by the "Petulia" company before the decision to use the Keil home with its spacious grounds was confirmed. The Belvedere homes of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kretchmer and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Brunsing also attracted the interest of the movie makers.

George McKegney, who has organized transportation for the Belvedere house tour year after year, took over chairmanship of the shuttle system between the parking lot at the Tiburon Lodge and the home at Keil Cove. He enlisted a corps of local youths who did yeoman service piloting the station wagons on the narrow roads. They were Tom Bertrand, Stephen Ramey, Ed Osborn, Michael Brookes, Lowell McKegney, Tina Bolling, Sharman McCammish, Rick Houser and Bill Bagge.

STILL ANOTHER localite is tied in with the movie, "Petulia." Eric Weiss, 10, of Fairfax, played the role of George C. Scott's older son in the film. Eric is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Weiss of Fairfax. Mr. Weiss is an English professor at the College of Marin.

JAMES ALLEN, son of the David Allens of Belvedere, is traveling in Europe this summer. He will meet his grandmother, Mrs. Harry B. Allen of Belvedere, also on a European junket, in Portugal, and they will spend a few days touring together. Jim was graduated from Sonoma State College in June. In Belvedere for the summer are two of the Allen daughters, Donna and Jeannie, who attend Principia Upper School in St. Louis, Mo.

VACATIONING ON the Belvedere Lagoon are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Conn of Sacramento and their children, Lisa, Josh and Tracy. Mrs. Cohn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Lucich of Belvedere. Barbara Cohn is very active with the Experiment in International Living program in Sacramento, and has been hostess to a number of young people from all over the world. Visiting the Cohns during their stay in Marin was Jean Gerard, Robert Norman of Paris. Jean has been studying agricultural economics as a graduate student at the University of California at Davis. His year's work completed, he left for France yesterday.

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR ROLAND CHATHAM

Chatham-Bryden Vows Exchanged

Louise Ann Bryden of Fairfax became the bride of Arthur Roland Chatham of San Anselmo Saturday. A service at St. Anselm's Church in San Anselmo joined the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David R. Bryden of San Anselmo and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russel W. Chatham, all of San Anselmo.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Diane Haluska of San Anselmo, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Dolores Silva of San Rafael and Cecilia Burns of San Anselmo.

The bridegroom's brother, Russell D. Chatham of Bolinas, was best man. Ushers were William Collins of Atascadero and Andrew Irving of Davis.

A reception at the Sleepy Hollow Clubhouse followed. For their wedding trip the couple went to the Piazzoni-Chatham Ranch in Carmel Valley. They will live in San Luis Obispo after August where the bridegroom is enrolled at California State Polytechnic College.

Louise was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and is employed with Dr. Rees B. Rees in San Francisco as a dermatologist. Her grandmother is Mrs. Agnes Walters of Corte Madera.

The bridegroom attended Sir Francis Drake High School and was graduated from the College of Marin in 1967. He has summer employment with the Loop Lumber Co. of Alameda.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Flirting Wife Brings Request From Man Who Resents Actions

DEAR HELEN:

The minute my wife and I arrive at a party, she's off like a rocket, flirting with every man in the room. It's like I suddenly disappeared.

I am not a jealous man, nor do I believe my wife would engage in hanky-panky, but she demands, and gets, male attention while I'm content to stay with the less agile businessmen who don't buzz the ladies.

How can I get it across to her that my wife is being talked about? The other wives resent her, and come to think of it, I resent her actions too. — ON THE SIDELINES

DEAR ON:

You can't change a born flirt by telling her. But you might hang in there with the ladies and show her how the shoe kicks on the other foot.

Remember now: Hanky, only. No panky. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

You of course won't publicly agree, but I say a spot of adultery is good for certain marriages. Mine for instance. My wife began to treat me as a vendor machine. Push this button, the pay check comes out. Push that, the kids have another car. Work the right combination, and we play bridge. Etcetera.

Then I met Diane to whom I was not a machine! My wife found out and suddenly I was a man again to her. I think she was secretly a little proud of me though she raised the roof. But how she treated me! It was like a second honeymoon, after she'd sent Diane packing.

I don't recommend it for everyone but adultery saved my marriage. — MARK

DEAR MARK:

Be that as it may, adultery is still not on my recommended list! — H.

DEAR HELEN:

My mother has a habit of telling me before a birthday or Christmas or graduation to buy something for one of our youngsters, as a gift from her, because she doesn't know their sizes. She promises to pay me later. But she never comes through with the cash.

She is not without means. She hands out a five dollar bill to my brother's kids every time they sneeze.

Somehow I can't bring myself to ask her outright for the money. What shall I do?— EMBARRASSED

DEAR EMB:

If a big thank-you letter from the kids doesn't make grandma kick through then you'd better skip it. But next time she asks you to buy her gifts, tell her your children are at the age where they enjoy cash. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

In our teen-agers' conversations, we hear the word "hickey" used. It was mentioned on a television show recently, and I believe you used the word in your column. Maybe my husband and I are just old-country but 22 years of marriage has left me with no knowledge of such a thing. (We were both well brought up in Europe.)

Our son explained it was sort of a lump or bruise raised by a skin-kiss, but am I correct in thinking it's wrong? — BEVERLY HILLS MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER:

Times have changed. In our day, a hickey was a pimple. Now it's a "No-No." I'm really not sure why, except that a girl who displays a hickey can expect an increase in propositions. Somehow they always remind me of Dracula so I'm agin' 'em. — H.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help you. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

Prince Has Public Guessing Plans

By MARGARET SAVILLE

LONDON (UPI)—The handsomest man in the royal family celebrates his 26th birthday July 4 and Britain's matchmakers are asking: "Where did we go wrong?"

Prince Michael of Kent, cousin of Queen Elizabeth, is tall, slim with blue-green eyes and thick dark hair and certainly one of the most eligible bachelors in the kingdom.

But he likes fast cars—and fast romances. Efforts to persuade him that it is time to settle down have thus far been drowned out by the noise at the parties he attends.

PRINCE MICHAEL OF KENT

Michael was born while his father the late Duke of Kent, (uncle of the queen) was on a wartime mission to the United States for the Royal Air Force. There the duke asked the president to be godfather to his son who bears the second given name of Franklin. The president and later Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt sent the prince birthday gifts and greetings until their deaths.

His birthday is easy to remember since it falls on the American Independence Day—ironic for a descendant of King George III who lost the American colonies.

Michael is a serving army lieutenant and lives with his widowed mother, Princess Marina, in an apartment at London's Kensington Palace. His job has taken on the glamorous overtones of army intelligence to which he is attached as an interpreter-officer.

He speaks perfect French and some Italian and German.

Although Michael mentions from time to time that he is getting to the age when he should be married, he shows no sign of preferring any particular one of the notably beautiful girls he has escorted.

He used to go about with a pretty blonde model, Angela Spoffort, 26, daughter of the director of an automobile firm with whom several members of the royal circle deal. They lunched and dined and danced and the prince picked her up at the studios after modeling sessions.

He escorted her to an exclusive private party given by his brother, the Duke of Kent and his duchess, at their country house. Angela was introduced to Princess Marina and to Prince Michael's sister, Princess Alexandra.

This sounded most promising, then suddenly they were seen together no more. And Michael started to lunch frequently with an equally attractive brunette, Gilliam Steele-Parkins, 24, daughter of a doctor, and niece of one of the queen's surgeons. She said they were, to coin a cliche, "just friends."

Prince Michael's duties include helping to entertain service attaches at foreign embassies in London. He also acts as a dancing partner at evening affairs. He is a popular member of the party circuit.

But, to the chagrin of the matchmakers, he enters his 27th year apparently fancy free.

Store Franks In Refrigerator

Give the franks you buy for outdoor and indoor cooking the good treatment they deserve, and they'll be wonderfully tasty no matter where they're cooked. In the sausage kitchens where franks are born, they are stuffed with selected lean beef and pork and delicately blended with just the right amount of spices. They get their ruddy tan from hanging in a smokehouse and then given an invigorating steam or water bath. That's why they come to you ready cooked. The proteins and vitamins in franks are equally as nutritious as those in any meat cut.

Once you've purchased the franks, give them the same careful treatment. Store them promptly in the refrigerator and use them within a week. For best flavor, don't freeze franks.

To earn her writer's badge she edited a troop newsletter, but two of the badges she enjoyed working toward the most were the Art and World Games badges.

GIRL SCOUT Junior Troop 705 of San Rafael presented a check for $65 to the Guide Dogs for the Blind at graduation ceremonies Saturday. The fourth and fifth grade girls at San Pedro School earned the money selling cookies and calendars.

Designer Fashions Not Indicative Of Views

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Fashion for fall is a dichotomy of dove and hawk, the Now generation and the old—although these trends do not necessarily reflect the political views or the ages of the designers.

Like a two-faced woman the fall scene is both lavish and parsimonious, colorful and drab, escapist and realistic, sensuous and prudish, sublime and ridiculous.

The dovish influence of the flower children showed up in the undie-ground world of fashion, with posy printed slips and bras and Indian meditation sleepwear in the Warner lingerie lines.

DESIGNER STAN HERMAN of Mr. Mort, who believes in "doing your own thing," offered his bag of hippie fashion influences—particularly the vest. Indeed, the whole Indian scene has been translated over and over again by one style house after another.

At the same time there are fashion hawks who cling to the military look whether on land or sea. Lynda Byrd Robb's wedding dress designer Geoffrey Beene is one. Put on the hawkish side his Napoleanic-cut tattersall check coats, his khaki doughboy girls wearing pleated skirts, and brass-buttoned, belted jackets straight out of World War I.

CALL ANNE KLEIN a now-generation realist in the midst of a then-generation backlash of romantic and old-fashioned clothes.

With slick leathers and buff suedes and rough tweeds and shaggy furs, Miss Klein has remained steadfastly modern, simple and honest in her design.

Prim Victorianism has been the backlash of too much nudity in recent seasons past. Yet some of the best designers have been loathe to give up the skin game altogether. Oscar de la Renta believes the belt line is best left uncovered. But others dare to leave bare a goodly portion of the bosom either by plunging necklines or cutting peek-a-boo windows or using see-through fabrics.

Pretty Girls Bring Hints

MUNICH, Germany (UPI) — For the international camper whose tongue ties at the sight of a pretty girl, there is a new multi-language phrase book that should help.

According to the West German Automobile club, publisher of the five-language guide, one approach might be "your bikini is charming."

If the English doesn't stop her, try "votre bikini est ravissant," French, "il suo bichini e carino," Italian, "su bikini es encantador," Spanish or "Ihr Bikini ist reizend," German.

Hub Budget Held Up By Salary Feud

The San Anselmo City Council, faced with what two councilmen called salary inequities, was unable to complete its 1968-69 budget study last night.

It agreed to meet again at 7:45 p.m. Monday to consider these inequities — 16 salary categories below the average in Marin County — and to then complete its study of a possible blanket salary increase for all employees.

ALSO REMAINING

Also remaining after five budget sessions is completion of a capital improvement project study and determining additional personnel and equipment expenses needed for the new year.

The council has been aiming at a budget of $1,008,237, about 15 per cent lower than the current budget of $1,214,652, and to retain the existing tax rate of $2.06 per $100 valuation because no large public works projects are planned for the new year.

City Administrator-Controller Alfred C. Kaeppel last night said his recommended funds for additional personnel, equipment and capital improvements totals $52,036.

The council in lengthy session which went into the early morning hour chewed its way deep into the list of proposed capital projects, but conceded that remaining decisions — including how to pay for acquisition of the Robson-Harrington Park property — must await the Monday session.

BALKS AT HIKES

The inequities detour came when Councilmen James F. Reed and Kenneth L. Anderson balked at a suggested across-the-board 10 per cent salary increase for all employees until the 16 salary categories could be corrected.

The categories, according to Anderson, are police sergeant, which he said, should be increased in income by 5.6 per cent; police dispatcher, 13.4; juvenile officer, 3.7; police officer, 4.1; account clerk, 10.4; fire captain, 5.8; fire lieutenant, 4.5; firemen, 6.6; equipment operator, 2.4; building inspector, 12.3; maintenanceman, 4; sweeper operator, 2.5; librarian, 6.1; junior librarian, 3.7; park maintenanceman, 2.9, and chief mechanic, 5.7.

URGE INCREASES

Maryor Duane C. Ragan and Councilman Woodrow V. Capurro maintained the 10 per cent blanket increase should be approved and the inequities adjusted later.

Councilman Anderson, however, moved that Kaeppel be directed to prepare a wage chart for all 1967-68 employee categories in all Marin cities except Belvedere, Ross, Tiburon and San Anselmo itself, so San Anselmo's low salaries can be adjusted to an average figure at the next meeting.

His motion carried 4-1, with Ragan holding out for the other procedure.

The council estimated that 12.5 per cent salary increases should easily make up for the inequities and also provide a 10 per cent blanket increase.

It then tentatively allowed for a 12.5 per cent increase to have sufficient funds to work with Monday. The action made the much-sought 10 per cent salary increase by employees likely. Kaeppel said the present salary total is about $616,000. The 12.5 per cent increase would cost the city $77,000 more, he said, a total of about $693,000.

FOR IMPROVEMENTS

Working on capital improvements, the council tentatively approved a $9,000 Memorial Park sprinkler system; $6,170 for street repair projects; $7,879 for water mains; and $12,000 toward replacement of an old fire engine.

It deleted a proposed $10,000 toward purchasing or building a teen center, agreeing to investigate instead the possibility of putting the matter on a future bond issue, and approved $17,716 for non-departmental expenses including advertising, building maintenance and utilities, and office expenses.

The San Anselmo planning commission, also scheduled to meet in city council chambers Monday, will instead meet at 8 p.m. that day in the Ross Valley Savings and Loan Association building, 305 San Anselmo Avenue.

A SOMBER WARNING

Helping Negroes To Find National Dignity A Must

By JIM BREWER

"Black people in the country right now have the power to do us all in — we might as well face it. We must help them to find their own sense of national dignity."

These remarks by Rt. Rev. C. Kilmer Myers, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of California, set the tone last night for a dinner meeting of 30 Marin County business and professional men who had gathered at the Dock restaurant in Tiburon to discuss what they might do to help relieve the racial problems facing today's society.

Generated by Bay Area clergymen, this was one of a series of such meetings that are taking place around the bay as men of business and industry begin to take a long, hard look at the helplessness, anger and disorder that has come to characterize much of daily life.

"It's not up to the church to come up with the blueprints," Myers said. "But it is important for us to act as a catalyst." He said industry seems to be recognizing its responsibility but "the problem is to bring society around the table of democracy so we can all realize the fundamentals of this country."

Myers, who has spent 20 years of his ministry working in ghettos across the country, said, "I find it terrifying. There is an ever increasing polarization to the point where a clash will mean an increase of military pressure, thus one-by-one destroying our democratic institutions."

Following the San Francisco bishop's brief introduction, the group got down to the business of offering suggestions and sharing ideas on the problem. Supervisor Peter H. Behr said there is a need for regional vocational training centers with in-service training and taught by professionals.

Speaking of vocational training, he said, "I don't believe the educators understand it, care about it, or in fact, can teach it." He said such training in public schools is thought of as second-class training and the teachers are regarded as second-class citizens by the academic community.

"Industry and labor must take over vocational training," he asserted, adding, "We have to stop giving third-class jobs with second-class training. The one thing the blacks can't stand is more broken promises."

He emphasized that hard-core Negro militants will be difficult to employ and asked that the group understand and be patient with them. "You're going to have to put up with them not showing up for work on Monday morning and walking off early," he said.

There was general agreement among those present, whose firms have hired the "hard-core unemployables," that much needs to be done to convince them to stay. It was often expressed that young Negroes hired from ghetto programs recently, have not remained past their initial training phase.

Dickerson McAfee of Belvedere suggested that much of the problem is underemployment. "What are we doing to see that these people are employed to their capacity?" he asked.

"The problem is too urgent," said Perrin Fay of Belvedere. "It's the state of our own minds. We should try to convince our colleagues and associates — awaken them. We should spread Bishop Myers' word."

The group discussed the activities which seem to characterize Negro youth. Rev. Stanley F. Rogers of Grace Cathedral in San Francisco presented what he called a sketch of the depth of the problem.

"The young cat looks at the old cat and sees a nobody," he said. "The young cat knows he listened to the white man. He saw his father hustle and get nothing. Why should he listen and hustle today?"

Myers concurred, saying, "Face it, the Negro has been economically, socially and psychologically done in."

Behr pointed to an urgency with the problem because "the black man is just about through listening." He said "dialogue" is getting nowhere because people only sit around and talk about whether they're really prejudiced or not. "You've got to make things relate to them," he said.

The meeting ended with a promise to reconvene next month, this time including some people from the Negro community.

Airman Jailed In Assault Case

A 19-year-old airman stationed at Hamilton Air Force Base was arrested early today on suspicion of statutory rape of a 17-year-old San Rafael girl.

Christopher M. Jones, assigned to the 938th Squadron, was booked at county jail on suspicion of statutory rape and contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He was held in lieu of $500 bail. No court appearance date had been set this morning.

Police said he was arrested after the girl's parents arrived home about 1 a.m. today from a trip and found the airman and their daughter asleep in a bedroom.

TEENER GIVEN CREDIT: KEPT COOL IN FIRE

A teen-age boy, who kept calm despite awaking early this morning and finding a dangerous fire in his bedroom, was credited by firemen with saving his family and keeping the fire from spreading.

Matthew Schneider of 130 Ward Street, Larkspur, awakened about 2:30 a.m. to find a fire had started in his room when a lamp fell onto a bed next to his. He aroused his parents, got them out of the house and returned to shut the doors to the bedroom so that the fire was contained, firemen said.

The fire, which destroyed the bedroom, was so hot that tiles popped off the wall in an adjacent bathroom. Damage was estimated at $3,500.

Judge To Discuss Ghetto Economy

Judge Joseph Kennedy of the San Francisco Municipal Court will discuss "Economics of the Ghetto" at a dinner of the Marin branch of the Henry George School of Social Science at 8 p.m. today at Sabella's Restaurant in Mill Valley.

Judge Kennedy also is chairman of the Economic Opportunity Council board in San Francisco.

Dr. Elmer Weden Jr. of San Anselmo will act as master of ceremonies, according to the president, Herbert Nienstedt of Corte Madera.

Full Accreditation For Military School

The San Rafael Military Academy has received full accreditation for the next five years from the Western Association of Schools and Colleges, it was announced yesterday by Supt. B. P. Clark.

An association inspection committee visited the school April 1-3 to evaluate its program and facilities.

Tomales High Board Asks Budget Cuts

Supt. Anthony Matulich last night submitted a $411,837 preliminary budget for fiscal 1969 to the Tomales High School District board at its regular meeting in the high school.

The budget was $61,346 more than the current $350,491 budget.

It would call for a tax rate of approximately $1.72 per $100 assessed valuation, compared to the present $1.33, according to the superintendent.

However, the board instructed Matulich to trim the budget and resubmit it at the July 11 board meeting. The vote was 4-0 with Joseph Tremari, board president, absent.

The Tomales High School District board also:

LOAN — Authorized Matulich to apply for a $193,790 loan from Marin County to run the district until tax revenues are received in December.

CALENDAR — Adopted a 247-working-day calendar for classified personnel, with eight paid holidays and from Dec. 23 to 28 off for Christmas.

RESIGNATIONS —Accepted resignations from Dr. Gerald Redwine, part-time school psychologist, and from Mrs. Judith Dunworth, arts and girls physical education teacher, who is moving from the district.

REPORT CARDS — Authorized Matulich to revise the present report cards. Matulich also reported that he is working on the schedule of classes for next school year trying to devise some unit work and team teaching.

SURVEY — Matulich said that the community survey questionnaire was being tried out in a pilot survey before the final document was prepared to make a survey of the entire district.

ADJOURNMENT— Adjourned until 8 p.m., July 11 when the board will reorganize for the coming year.

ADOPTS STRANGER

Does This Pigeon Know It's A Bird?

"I don't know a thing about birds," he said. "I was just walking up to get a cup of coffee, and it landed on my shoulder."

And that's where it's remained most of the time since, picking gently and playfully at Price's ear.

Price can't imagine why the bird chose him — or why it doesn't leave. "I can wlak down the street with it on my shoulder and it won't fly away," he explained. The bird has also rejected more direct attempts to encourage it to leave.

Price, of Manteca, San Josquin County, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Maxine Barber of Tiburon and was at the Marin Town and Country Shopping Center where she has a beauty salon when the pigeon decided to begin its strange love affair.

He took the pigeon home for the night and gave it free run of the basement washroom. Yesterday morning, after the pigeon was freed, it followed Price everywhere. "I went in to take a bath and he even came in there."

Price's first stop was at the Audubon Society where he was told it might be a Chinese pigeon and was given some food for it.

Price said he plans to take it home with him if no one claims it before that. "A car doesn't bother it," he said.

Art Program Gets Good Response In Mill Valley

Response to the summer art workshop program, sponsored by the Mill Valley Art Commission, has been enthusiastic, Mill Valley art commissioners heard last night.

Commissioners agreed to meet again the last week of July to see if public enthusiasm will support a fall workshop, chairman Gloria Wachs reported.

Sign-ups have been very heavy in the adult primitive weaving and primitive ceramics classes and the children's painting and nature study classes, Mrs. Wachs said. The workshop starts July 9.

Sail Lieberman was named vice chairman replacing Gary Philip and Laura Devendorf was named representative to Fair/Marin, Mrs. Wachs said.

Commissioners also agreed to request city approval of membership in the American Council of Arts, estimated to cost $35 a year, she said.

Local Burglary Loot In Auto

A 19-year-old San Rafael youth was arrested on suspicion of receiving stolen property today after police said they found loot taken in a local burglary in the trunk of his car.

Robert H. Gonzales, 433 First Street, booked at county jail on suspicion of receiving stolen property, was held in lieu of $1,000 bail. No court appearance had been scheduled this morning.

Police said items found in the trunk of his car, included seven pieces of stereo equipment, a metal sculpture, a jacket, a lamp, a sombrero, and two couch pillows, all taken from the home of Charles L. Dyer, 8 Cortes Street, San Rafael, during a party Saturday night. No value was placed on the items.

Engineers To Report

A report by consulting engineers Brown and Caldwell on the proposed annexation of the Lucky Drive-Fifer Avenue area will be heard by the Corte Madera Sanitary District board at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the district office.

State Lynch Law Invoked In Case

OAKLAND (AP) — California's lynch law has been brought into a case involving three Negroes charged with trying to prevent the arrest of a fourth Negro.

The law, rarely invoked, says: "The taking by means of a riot of any person from the lawful custody of a peace officer is a lynching." Penalties upon conviction range up to 20 years in prison.

Accused of violating the law were Lecinda Thompson, 28, Betty Brown, 21, and Peter Nash, 20.

$260,000 Asked For Auto Crash

A$260,000 suit for injuries suffered in a Sausalito traffic accident was filed yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

Calvin Kentfield, 42, of 214 West Street, Sausalito, charges that negligent maintenance of the brakes of an automobile owned by the defendants, Mary and Herbert Beckman, resulted in his suffering a broken back on Sept. 29.

Sausalito police said Kentfield was driving the car when it went out of control, smashed through an open, two-car carport at the home of Norman Litt at 203-A Valley Street, crashed through a guard rail and somersaulted in a plunge to the beach below.

Police Seeking Owner Of Dog

Larkspur police are looking for the owner of a German shepherd dog which but a 17-year-old San Anselmo boy Wednesday afternoon so that the boy can possibly avoid having painful rabies shots.

Archie Cruthees of 9 Florence Avenue said he was hiking in the vicinity of South Eliseo Drive and Via Belardo in Greenbrae when the dog, who was being walked by his owner, broke away and bit him.

The biting happened between 3 and 5 p.m., Larkspur police said.

Driver's Lip Cut In Crash

A Tiburon woman suffered a cut lip yesterday when her car crashed into the rear of one stopped for heavy commute traffic on southbound Highway 101, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Lydia M. Schlant, 50, of 2 Lyford Drive, Tiburon, was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Her car collided with one driven by Clarence L. Yearley, 36, of 1828 Center Road, Novato, at 7:50 a.m., south of the Forbes overpass, according to the highway patrol.

Hughes Antitrust Suit Withheld

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department withheld at the last minute an antitrust suit against Howard Hughes' acquisition of a sixth hotel-gambling casino in Las Vegas, Nev., the department said today.

A spokesman said the department "was prepared to file suit yesterday. The suit was withheld after the Hughes Co. volunteered to delay the acquisition in order to discuss an appropriate disposition of the matter."

Hughes had planned to buy the Stardust Hotel-Casino for $30.5 million. The purchase would make him the state's biggest gambling operator—and would give him a sixth such establishment on Las Vegas' so-called "strip."

Alioto To Help Cranston's Race

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Mayor Joseph Alioto plans to play an active role in Alan Cranston's campaign for the U.S. Senate.

In announcing his plans to serve on the Cranston-for-Senator Committee, Alito charged Cranston's GOP opponent, Max Rafferty, with "pitting class against class."

He said Rafferty's "extremism" already had become apparent.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Scores Of Chemicals May Cause Sunlight Grief To Skin

VAN DELLEN

More than a hundred chemicals sensitize the skin to sunlight. The products lead to an itchy rash, hives, or localized pigmented area.

Photosensitivity is not common, but the list of culprits that cause it is growing. Included are a variety of additives used in drugs, foods, soaps, and household products.

THE CLEW occurs when an eruption develops over areas exposed to light, such as the face, back of the neck, "V" of the chest, outer surface of the arms, and the front of the legs.

The patches usually do not appear in shaded areas such as under the nose, within the folded parts of the eyelids, and under dress straps or wrist-watches. Now and then the rash is seen only where the irritant was applied.

Photoallergy to drugs is suspected when the dermatitis follows exposure to the sun in the areas mentioned previously. A rash may erupt even though the individual is sitting in front of a glass window. But pinpointing the culprit in these instances takes the patience of Job and the victim's full cooperation.

A WOMAN with an obvious case of photosensitivity was asked about all medications including headache remedies, tranquilizers, antihistamines, tonics, griseofulvin, and laxatives taken during the last year.

She also had not used any of the 70 commercial products including shampoos, soaps, and antiseptic creams that contain halogenated salicylanilides, hexachlorophene, and other known contact photosensitizers.

Careful questioning about other new chemical contacts at home elicited only one possibility — a "diet beverage" she had been drinking daily for two months.

CYCLAMATE, an ingredient in the product, was the culprit.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topis if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.)

LENGTH OF NAVEL CORD

REPLY

Length of the umbilical cord can vary from 7 to 48 inches, but averages about 22. Serious complications may occur when it is too long or too short.

Years ago, English physicians conducted a study to determine why the cord usually was more than 20 inches long. They concluded that in primitive times the longer cord was an advantage in that it allowed the mother to pick up her newborn and carry him away from danger without internal harm to herself.

BORN WITH CAUL

J. writes: I' m18 years old and was born with a veil over my face. My old country neighbors tell me this is a sign of great wealth in the future. Is there anything to this story?

REPLY

Yes, provided it creates the incentive to work. Unfortunately, the person who started the fairy tale about the luck of being born with a caul never heard of the call of the income tax collector.

SALIVA AND PREGNANCY

REPLY

The exact cause is not known except that it is related to the stimulation of the nerves that involve the salivary glands and the gastrointestinal tract. The condition probably is associated with morning sickness.

SPRAIN OR STRAIN?

A. L. writes: What is the difference between ankle sprain and strain?

REPLY

Strain usually involves injury of the muscle fibers. In a sprain, the joints, ligaments, and capsule are affected.

CAUSES OF RED EYELIDS

REPLY

Only in Indians. If infection is responsible, it may be passed along to the family via close contact. Heredity is considered indirectly when the cause of redness is on an allergic basis.

MOLE TO MALIGNANCY

Mrs. W. writes: Could a birthmark become cancerous?

REPLY

Yes, but this complication is rare, considering the thousands of persons who have moles or birthmarks.

DISCOTHEQUES AND HEARING

L. A. writes: Recently my friend's guardian told us that he had seen a demonstration on television which proved that people who frequent discotheques will be deaf within 10 years. I would also like to know if spending three or more hours a week in these places, could be harmful to the hearing?

REPLY

This is doubtful, because you are likely to recover between visits.

LUMP IN THROAT

Mrs. B. writes: What causes a lump in the throat?

REPLY

This condition usually is due to tension of the throat muscles and is common in nervous individuals. Some persons have sinusitis and the lump may be thick, tenacious pus that adhered to the back of the throat. Because of the outside chance of a rare disorder, a thorough examination is in order when these possibilities do not fit the case.

Housing Project Gets Go-Ahead Despite Pickets

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Federal officials have approved a loan for construction of a housing project which has attracted vigorous opposition in the Western Addition.

Pickets from the Western Addition Community Organization blocked construction last month, then the U.S. Housing and Urban Development Commission refused to approve financing.

HUD Secretary Robert C. Weaver notified Mayor Joseph L. Alioto yesterday, however, that the Federal Housing Administration has agreed to issue a $2 million mortgage to permit construction of the 110 units of low and middle-income housing.

WACO protested against the project because two-thirds of the units would be for middle-income families. It wanted two-thirds for low-cost housing.

Weaver said the FHA mortgage was arranged to help developers cope with a $147,000 jump in land costs.

Bufano Displays Idea For Guns

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The guns being surrendered in San Francisco since the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy may be melted by sculptor Benny Bufano into a martyrs' tribute in the form of a statue to St. Francis.

Wednesday he displayed a model which has on the robe the heads of Senator Kennedy: his brother, the late President John F. Kennedy; Dr. Martin Luther King, and Abraham Lincoln.

Cable Car-Bus Crash Hurts Nine

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A collision between a cable car and a bus injured nine persons and tied up traffic for more than 30 minutes in downtown San Francisco yesterday.

The most seriously hurt in the crash at Sutter and Powell streets was bus passenger May Levine, 44, who suffered a hip fracture, police said. Allen Gillette, 17, one of those aboard the cable car, was treated for a cracked shin.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Industry Is Given A Severe Rapping

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Four prominent Negroes shook up television last night in an outspoken, one-hour ABC-TV panel discussion entitled "Bias And The Mass Media." It was the first program of a six-part series about the race issue, "Time For Americans."

The four who jolted television's never-never land with their frankness, anger and personal involvement were entertainers Harry Belafonte and Lena Horne; poet-critic-essayist Lawrence Neal and Dr. Alvin Poussaint, assistant psychiatry professor at Tufts University Medical School in Boston.

ABC-TV had billed the hour as "an indictment of racism as it exists in the media in America—radio and television, advertising, newspapers and magazines."

Actually, however, television took perhaps the most severe whipping by the panel, with news reporting also coming in for its share of lumps. Radio, magazines and advertising were scarcely in the picture. Movies were put on the spot at times.

By the nature of the format, the hour was less a formal and scientific documentary study than an instinctive human etching of issues deeply felt. And this was one time when the formal documentary approach could hardly have matched the passionate feeling dispersed, despite the occasionally questionable points made in all such free-wheeling talks.

It was inevitable that television would be lacerated so severely on the program because tremendous pressures on the industry over the racial question have been brought to bear in recent years, and have suddenly been bringing some results.

The very scheduling of the subject, for instance, was an implicit admission by television of the point being discussed. Otherwise there would have been no reason for it. And there was an added irony in the fact that two of the guests, Miss Horne and Belafonte, once had difficulty getting their own shows on television.

To those who have kept abreast of black feelings toward television, there was hardly any surprise in a very leading point brought up: the image of the Negro as presented in entertainment. But the fact that it was discussed so vociferously in prime time made all the difference.

Dr. Poussaint noted with cold, stark insight that it was a simple fact that all races look after their own self-interest. He did, however, criticize white television for tending to emphasize negative aspects of Negro life rather than normal existence.

It was put fourth strongly that whites don't see blacks as a whole people—but rather as either exceptional individual talents, or a mass. Not, in short, as real people in a real context. And a challenge was issued for television to provide more time for blacks and their outlook—including even militants who might not be palatable to the general audience.

Belafonte put the challenge to television like this: What are you prepared to give up in terms of the profit margin?

The second program of the series, on July 11, will present representatives of the mass media responding to Thursday night's broadcast.

Homeowners Pick Officers' Slate

The Villa Real Property Owners Association this week elected the following officers:

The association voted to move ahead with a $5,000 project for beautification of the entrance to the area, located between Peacock Gap Country Club and Loch Lomond in San Rafael. The project was delayed by the widening of San Pedro Road.

I Told You San Geronimo Course Is No Pushover

FORE WARNED — I warned you last week that San Geronimo National course would provide a stiff challenge for the participants in Sunday's second annual Marin Golf Tournament of Champions.

Well, that's the way it turned out as the six participants had an average score of 83 — 11 pops over par.

Winner Russ Adams' 75 and runners-up Milt Morley's 77 actually were outstanding rounds over the county's longest course. Off the back tees, which they used, Geronimo stretched out to 6,784 yards, par 72.

Adams, the 24-year-old salesman who lives with his wife, Hedy, and 3½-year-old daughter at 215 Marin Street, San Rafael, credits Mill Valley muni professional Malcolm Brown for much of his success in winning the Mill Valley club title and now the T. and C. "Brownie helped me quite a bit," said the Tam High grad. Incidentally, Adams shot a three-under-par 69 at San Geronimo about a year ago.

Great Start For His Caddie

His caddy at the T of C last Sunday was Bud McDevitt, the sales manager of DeLong Chevrolet, San Rafael. "First time I ever caddied," chuckled McDevitt, "and I bring home a winner."

By the way, Russ is the second champ in the Adams family. His father, Blyth, holds the billiards title at the San Rafael Elks Club.

Next year's third annual T of C will be held at the Meadow Club in Fairfax. That was determined this week by drawing the name of the course out of a hat.

Collett Vacationing In Hawaii

Elmer Collett of Mill Valley, who played a lot of offensive guard for the 49ers in his rookie year last season, has vacationed in Hawaii to rest up before training camp opens in Santa Barbara next month.

The 881 Club of San Rafael is taking a busload of fans to Oakland Coliseum for the Athletics-Boston Red Sox game July 14. Anyone interested in hitching a ride should contact Pete at the 881 Club. Tariff is $6 for bus transportation and ticket to the ball game.

Popular Art Donati returned to the lineup for the Sohner Tree Service softball team of San Anselmo last weekend, fully mended from a broken leg he suffered in an early-season game.

Tony Jacklin In Form For Cleveland Open

CLEVELAND (AP) — Tony Jacklin appears to be in the groove again and he owes it all to an unintentional layoff.

The young British golfer failed to make the cut in last week's Canadian Open and did not qualify for the U.S. Open two weeks ago.

OVERPLAYED

"I was mentally exhausted. I overplayed myself. I only had two weeks off in the last six months," the 23-year-old pro said yesterday after taking a three-stroke lead in the $110,000 Cleveland Open with a torrid five-under-par 66.

Jacklin figures only two rounds of golf in the last two weeks has him back in stride again.

"My play has gotten gradually worse since I won the Jacksonville Open. I finished 20th in the Masters and seventh in the Tournament of Champions. After that, it was nothing but picking up a few $200 checks."

And that's a mere pittance for Jacklin, who has won more than $51,000 this year, only his second time on the American circuit.

WINDS

Gusty winds and temperatures in the 60s plagued most of the 144 golfers on the 6,742-yard Lakewood Country Club course but hardly bothered the popular Englishman.

He registered seven birdies and only two bogeys in his fine performance that included 10 one-putt greens and only 26 putts.

Chasing Jacklin were a quartet of pros at 69. They were Roberto De Vicenzo of Argentina, Hideyo Sugimoto of Tokyo, Dave Stockton and Wayne Yates.

CERRUDO AT 74

(Ron Cerrudo of San Rafael had a first round 74.)

Trevino admitted he was trying a little harder since his $30,000 Open victory. "There is more pressure on you trying to please the public," he said.

TERRA LINDAN BILL LEE INKS RED SOX PACT

Bill Lee, former Terra Linda High School hurler who helped Southern California to dominate collegiate baseball circles, signed a contract with the Boston Red Sox organization last Tuesday, it was announced today.

Red Sox scout Joe Stephenson signed Lee to a Pittsfield, Mass., contract in Anaheim. Lee signed for a bonus and will be able to complete his education under an education clause in the contract. He has one semester to go at USC.

Lee has reported to the Red Sox' Class A club in Waterloo, Iowa, in the Midwestern League. Pittsfield is a AA club in the Eastern League.

Lee, a southpaw, was a former All-Marin County Athletic League pitcher and was named to the All-Tournament team in this month's NCAA World Series, won by USC in unbeaten fashion.

Leach-Hawken Showdown Possible In Western Golf

Ray Leach of Novato and Don Hawken, formerly of San Rafael and now residing in Tahoe City, were headed toward a possible clash today as the 51st Western Junior Golf Championship reached the showdown stages at Stanford.

Leach and Hawken, friendly rivals during their brilliant high school careers who will be teammates at Brigham Young University next fall, each swept two matches yesterday to reach the quarterfinals.

The steady and slender Leach beat Jim Carney of Centerville, Iowa, 4 and 2, and came back in the afternoon to edge David Boals of Medford, Ore., 1 up.

Hawken, meanwhile, downed Randy Tiesiera of Castro Valley, 2 up and Joel Eastman of Peoria, Ill., 4 and 3.

In this morning's quarterfinals it was Leach against Andy North of Madison, Wis. and Hawken vs. Bruce Titus of Hawthorne. Other quarterfinals found tourney medalist Bruce Ashworth of Las Vegas against Tony Ferrara of Montebello and Craig Griswold of Lake Oswego, Ore. vs. Denny Powers of Litchfield Park, Ariz.

Limit Scholarships, Say Commissioners

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Limiting athletic scholarships to one year as a possible means of disciplining college athletes was recommended yesterday by the Collegiate Commissioners Association.

New Faces Is Theme For A.L. Pitchers

BOSTON (AP) — New Faces of 1968 could well be the name for the youthful and relatively inexperienced pitching corps which will represent the American League in the All-Star game at Houston July 9.

Not a single repeater from 1967 was on the seven-man staff named yesterday by Manager Dick Williams. Four were chosen for the first time in their careers, while the other three—Denny McLain of Detroit, Sam McDowell of Cleveland and Mel Stottlemyre of New York—have hurled in just one previous classic each.

McLain, the league's big winner with a 13-2 record, was the starting pitcher the only other time he was selected in 1966, hurling three perfect innings.

McDowell, 7-6, pitched two innings in the 1965 game, giving up one run in taking the 6-5 loss. The fireballing left-hander also was selected in 1966, but had arm trouble and was replaced on the squad by teammate Sonny Siebert.

Stottlemyre, 9-4, was picked but did not play in 1965, then pitched two scoreless innings in 1966.

Ken Rosewall Eliminates Pasarell At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — If anyone is to stop Ken Rosewall from winning Wimbledon, he's got to do it by scoring points quickly.

"Unless you score the points quickly, you don't win it at all," the husky star from Santurce, Puerto Rico said.

Pasarell's bombing service — one of the most powerful in the world—brought him close to glory on the center court. Finally Rosewall won 7-9, 6-1, 6-8, 6-2, 6-3.

After four days of intermittent rain, the organizers are some 140 matches behind schedule. But they've finished all the first round of men's singles and all but seven of the second round.

Rod Laver moved into the third round yesterday with a hard-won 6-3, 6-4, 6-4 victory over No. 7 seeded Stan Smith of Los Angeles. Laver, who eliminated Eugene Scott of St. James, N.Y., in the first round, next faces another American — Marty Riessen, Davis Cup star from Evanston, Ill.

Versalles Homer Does It

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Everyone but Zoilo Versalles was surprised yesterday when the Los Angeles shortstop shattered Juan Marichal's mastery over the Dodgers at Candlestick Park.

Versalles, the owner of a .177 batting average, lofted a leadoff home run in the 11th inning as the Dodgers downed Marichal and the San Francisco Giants 6-5.

A FIRST

"He got it high and I hit it out," Versalles said.

"People forget I hit 20 home runs in 1964 and 19 in 1965 with Minnesota. I'm just having a bad year — I can't do anything about it."

Versalles' second home run of the season also snapped Marichal's 10 game winning streak and left his record to 14-3. "A .180 hitter shouldn't get one out," said the dejected Marichal.

The loss dropped the Giants into third place behind Atlanta. San Francisco opens a three-game series with the Cincinnati Reds tonight at 8 o'clock at Candlestick. Gaylord Perry, 6-4, is scheduled to oppose Tony Cloninger, 1-4.

The pesky Versalles singled, stole second and scored the tieing run in the sixth inning on pinch-hitter Ken Boyer's two-out single as the Dodgers overcame two home runs by Willie McCovey.

McCovey's first homer pulled the Giants into 1-1 tie in the bottom of the second inning after the Dodgers went ahead in the top half on Jim Lefebvre's double, Wes Parker's single and Versalles run-scoring grounder.

RALLY

Singles by Hal Lanier, Ron Hunt and Ty Cline produced one run, then McCovey unloaded a 450-foot 3-run homer to right center for a 5-2 lead.

Willie Davis' double and Len Gabrielson's 6th home run of the season gave the Dodgers two runs in the 5th. Versalles' antics and Boyer's belt earned the tie and Don Sutton, 4-7, blanked the Giants the last four innings for the win.

NFL Players May Strike

DETROIT (AP) — Strike talk was in the air today as National Football League players' and owners' representatives arrived in Detroit for a negotiating session.

The Associated Press learned last night that NFL players have voted to strike unless owners grant demands for a higher minimum salary, improved pension plans and higher exhibition game pay.

All 640 NFL players were contacted in a telephone poll and a vast majority of them voted to authorize a strike, it was learned.

Detroit Lions owner William Clay Ford said today's meeting is a regular meeting between the players' association and owners' negotiating committees, not an emergency session as had been reported.

Time and place of the meeting could not be ascertained last night.

Ford said reports of the strike threat were strictly a rumor. "There is nothing to substantiate it." He said he spoke with Gordy last night and Gordy made no mention of a strike.

"I know for a fact that the players have not been polled," Ford said. He declined to elaborate.

In Philadelphia, however, Eagles' linebacker Dave Lloyd said there had been an information telephone poll of Eagles players.

"We have been contacted, but we haven't had a group meeting to say whether we'd strike or not," Lloyd said.

Bob Schulze, sports director for Green Bay television station WFRV, said he had been told by five Green Bay Packers that they have been asked in a telephone poll if they would back a players' strike.

The five, who asked not to be identified, said they would, Schulze reported.

"Of course I voted yes," he quoted one as saying. "If you don't vote yes to go along with the Association, what's the use of having one in the first place?"

Brechler Named Cal Athletic Head

BERKELEY (AP) — Paul W. Brechler, commissioner of the Western Athletic Conference, was named athletic director of the University of California's Berkeley campus today, succeeding Pete Newell who resigned in the wake of unrest among Negro athletes.

Brechler, 55, will assume the position Aug. 15, according to University Chancellor Roger W. Heyns, who said, "We believe he will give to athletics at Berkley the leadership we seek."

Brechler was commissioner of the WAC six years, commissioner of the old Skyline Conference for three years, and was athletic director at the University of Iowa from 1947 until 1960.

Brechler's appointment was approved by the university regents and was recommended unanimously by a committee of students, faculty and alumni.

Newell, who became Cal's athletic director in 1960, was the basketball coach before that and led the Bears to the NCAA championship in 1959 and the runner-up spot in 1960.

He resigned in March while a university committee was conducting an investigation into charges by 40 Negro athletes that some members of the athletic department—but not Newell—discriminated against Negroes. The athletes had threatened to boycott varsity sports.

Newell has been named general manager of the San Diego Rockets of the National Basketball Association.

Athletics To Open Yank Series

NEW YORK (AP)—The Oakland Athletics open a four-game series against the New York Yankees tonight, hoping to climb higher than their current fifth place in the American League.

The Athletics will face Stan Bahnsen, 7-2, New York candidate for Rookie of the Year. He's been the Yankees saving grace all season.

The 23-year-old right-hander has been a big surprise after his 9-11 record with Syracuse of the International League last season. The 6-2, 187-pound flinger had a 3.52 earned run average then.

Facing Bahnsen will be Lew Krausse, who raised his won-lost record to 4-7 with a 4-1, 5-hit, 8-strikeout triumph over Washington last weekend.

The A's are 3-4 against the Yankees this season, but have no fear of them in Yankee Stadium. John "Blue Moon" Odom beat them there April 15 with the aid of a Reggie Jackson home run. The next day, reliever Ed Sprague got the victory when Floyd Robinson pinch-hit a ninth inning home run.

Don't Look Now, Here Come Mets

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Here come the Mets! Again!

New York's grown-up expansion babes soared within a stride of hitherto unreachable heights last night . . . for the fifth time this month . . . by trimming Houston 3-1 behind right-handers Don Cardwell and Ron Taylor.

The victory put the Mets' season record at 35-36. They never have reached the .500 level, after the first week, in any of their previous six National League seasons. But for the past two weeks it's been touch and go.

A four-game winning streak brought the Mets within a step of the elusive break-even point on June 14. The next day they rattled 16 hits off San Francisco's Juan Marichal . . . and lost 9-5.

Last Saturday, Gil Hodges' youngsters were knocking at the door again, but Los Angeles' Don Drysdale applied the brakes. Then, two shots at .500 in Cincinnati this week became a pair of one-run losses.

Tonight in the Astrodome, Nolan Ryan, a 21-year-old rookie with a 6-5 record and speed to burn, leads the uphill assault against last-place Houston and fireballer Larry Dierker, 7-10 on the season.

In yesterday's only other N.L. games, Los Angeles nipped San Francisco 6-5 on Zoilo Versalles' 11th-inning homer, ending Marichal's personal winning streak at 10 games, and Atlanta shaded Philadelphia 4-3 under the lights as brothers Hank and Tommie Aaron combined to drive in three runs.

Cardwell, who went into the Houston game with six straight setbacks and a 1-8 record, blanked the Astros for seven innings before leaving under fire in the eighth. With one run in, Taylor came out of the Met bullpen and got the third out, stranding two base runners, then retired the Astros in order in the ninth.

Two of Ed Charles' three hits figured in the New York Scoring. Singles by Cleon Jones and Charles, a late throw to the plate on Jerry Grote's grounder, a balk by losing pitcher Denny Lemaster and Jerry Buchek's sacrifice fly sent two runs across in the seventh. Singles by Charles, Grote and Don Bosch produced an insurance run in the ninth.

Hank Aaron drilled his 14th homer . . . and 495th of his career . . . and brother Tommie delivered two runs with a pair of singles, helping the Braves take a 4-2 lead into the ninth.

But winner Pat Jarvis needed relief help from Cecil Upshaw, who retired Rich Allen on a sharp grounder to third baseman Marty Martinez for the final out after pinch hitter Bill White's RBI single had closed the gap.

AMERICAN LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

Red Sox Bomb Indians And Sam McDowell

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sam McDowell was fine as long as he was throwing strikes. It was only when he let the Red Sox hit the ball that he got in trouble.

McDowell, selected as a member of the American League All-Star pitching staff earlier in the day, struck out the side in the first inning against Boston last night. But in between the Red Sox scored six unearned runs on their way to a 9-3 romp over Cleveland.

Joe Foy opened the Red Sox first against McDowell with a bloop single and raced to third when Larry Brown threw wild on Jerry Adair's grounder. McDowell struck out Carl Yastrzemski but Ken Harrelson stroked the first of his three hits, scoring Foy.

Brown's second error of the inning gave Boston another run and Rico Petrocelli singled for the third one. George Scott struck out but Russ Gibson walked, loading the bases and Jose Santiago singled for two runs. McDowell wild pitched the sixth run in and walked Foy before fanning Adair for the third out.

Santiago, also an All-Star, worked five innings before leaving with a slight soreness in his right elbow. He got his ninth victory in 13 decisions.

Milt Morley of the Marin Country Club wowed the gallery at the second annual Marin Tournament of Champions by sinking this sandtrap shot for a birdie on the fourth hole at San Geronimo. However, it wasn't quite enough as the 50-year-old Morley placed second to 24-year-old Russ Adams of the Mill Valley Golf Club, 75-77. Bonds Has Credentials For Big League Stardom

Bobby Bonds, the young man who made his first major league hit a memorable grand slam home run in his major league debut, was discovered by Evo Pusich, little known Los Angeles scout of the Giants.

"Evo is not a big name scout," said Jack Schwarz, administrative secretary of the Giant farm system to whom all of the organization's scouts make their reports. "But give Evo the full credit for discovering Bonds, following him and arguing me into going for the bonus money for him."

SCHWARZ REPORTED other scouts looked at Bonds when he was lettering in baseball, basketball, football and track at Riverside Polytechnic High School but didn't believe he could hit the curve. In fact, Bonds did have trouble with breaking balls early in his career.

The phrase "early in his career" is misleading. Actually, Bonds' career is just starting. At least, his big time career is. He made his major league debut Tuesday night in Candlestick Park and his first hit was a slammer off Dodger righthander John Purdin.

NO OTHER rookie in the big leagues since the turn of the century ever hit a grand slam in his debut. There was a fellow named William J. Duggelby who did it for the Philadelphia Nationals before the turn of the century on April 21, 1898.

So overnight Bonds became a baseball celebrity. And nobody was happier than Pusich, the scout who kept insisting in his reports to Schwarz that "Bonds will hit, I'm sure he will."

WHAT KIND of bonus did Bonds receive?

"Average," said Schwarz. "I'd say par for the course, not a nothing bonus and not one to create any special interest for those interested in such things.

"In all of my dealings with Bonds he impressed me as a high class, intelligent young man with a desire to excel in competition. He is a well behaved gentleman from a fine family. Indeed, he has his own family now, two sons and a charming wife."

FOLLOWING HIS graduation from high school in 1964, Bonds spent one year at Riverside City College. Born March 15, 1946, he was not yet 20 when Pusich signed him to a Giant contract.

"We sent him to Lexington in the Western Carolinas League in 1965 and he led the league with 25 home runs," said Schwarz. "In 1966 at Fresno he struck out 146 times against California League pitching but he also hit 26 homers. That was when he was having trouble with the breaking ball.

"IN 1967 at Waterbury against tougher Eastern League pitching he cut his strikeouts down to 98 while hitting 15 homers. This year he was leading the Pacific Coast League for Phoenix with a .367 average when he was called up."

Bonds comes from an athletic family. His sister, Rosie, was United States women's record holder in the hurdles and was a member of the 1964 Olympic Games team. A brother, Robert V. Bonds, played pro football for the Kansas City Chiefs.

IN HIS senior year of high school Bonds was California state broad jump champion at 25 feet 3 inches, second best in the country, and was named to the High School All-American track team. He ran the 100-yard dash in 9.5 and the 220 in 21 seconds flat.

IN FOOTBALL Bonds was Southern California's high school "Athlete of the Year" and led his league in passing and running as a tailback.

"Whatever he does he does well," said Schwarz. "He has a deep desire to excel. Desire may not be everything but you got to have it for success."

Raiders Sign End From Florida A&M

A small-college All-American in 1967, Eason, 6-3, 230 pounds, was a wide receiver in college, but will be tried first at tight end, the Raiders of the America Football League said.

Cubs Send John Boccabella To Tacoma Farm Club

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A flurry of player transactions occupied major league baseball yesterday with only five games being played and executives using their spare time to consummate deals, one involving San Anselmo's John Boccabelle.

The Chicago Cubs were the busiest team. The Cubs, who have dropped six straight and 11 of their last 12, swapped outfielder Lou Johnson to Cleveland for outfielder-pitcher Willie Smith, acquired catcher Gene Oliver from Boston, called up pitcher Bill Stoneman from Tacoma of the Pacific Coast League and sent pitcher Chuck Hartenstein and first baseman-catcher Boccabella to Tacoma.

Pizarro, 31, was 1-1 in 12 appearances with the Pirates, all in relief. He had his best year with the Chicago White Sox in 1964 when he was 19-9.

Oliver got into only 16 games with the Red Sox and had a .143 average. He also plays first base and has been with St. Louis, Philadelphia and Atlanta as well as the Red Sox.

7 Of 13 Marin Skaters Win

Seven of 13 skaters from the Marin Figure Skating Club of Raydine's Ice Rink in Corte Madera took a first or a second in the Central California Inter Club Association's First Annual Skating Competition last Sunday.

First-place winners were John La Neue of San Rafael, Forrest Craig of Greenbrae, and Janine Messinger of Corte Madera.

Beban Is Hoping To Prove Himself

ATLANTA (UPI) — Winning the Heisman Trophy wasn't enough. Now Gary Beban wants to prove the pros were wrong last winter when they questioned his prospects as a pro quarterback.

The former UCLA star gets his chance tonight when he quarterbacks the favored West in the eighth annual Coaches All-America football game at Atlanta Stadium.

Kickoff for the nationally televised ABC contest is 5:30 p.m. PDT and sponsors of the game are desperately hoping for a last-minute crush at the gate to at least half fill the 52,000-seat stadium.

Exceptional Run Of Salmon Near The Farallon Islands

STEVENS

Was the reported fast action on the part of sport fishing for salmon a fluke? Not so. The exceptional run of salmon, mostly kings, continue. The report by Doris Marshall from the Lee Anderson Bait Shop in Oakland on Tuesday's score is proof. It follows: The Sea Horse, 10 limits to 25 pounds; the Chinook, 15 limits to 26 pounds; the Long Fin, 10 limits to 14 pounds; the Wilma H., 7 limits to 28 pounds; the Sea Wolf, 10 limits to 15 pounds: the Miss Dragnet, 11 limits to 22 pounds. The area fished was northeast of the Farallone Islands near the "C" Buoy and practically all salmon were of the King species.

I asked Doris Marshall the score on stripers. "The only report I can give you on bass is that the RSP tried sinker-bumping in the Racoon Strait and netted six limits," she said.

THE YOUNG FISHER folk are still taking lots of fish — crappies, Bluegills and an occasional black bass or trout in Lake Chabot. The youngsters are also catching quite a few crappies, bluegills, and small black bass in Cull Canyon Lake in the Hayward area.

WHICH BRINGS to mind an interesting letter from Mrs. J. A. Beckner of San Rafael.

She writes: "Dear Sir; I enjoy your Fishin' Fool column in the I-J I am wondering if you could go to bat for getting fish planted in the Marin Civic Center Lake. Children go there by the dozens and they have the patience of Job because I don't think there are any fish in that lovely lake. The only fish I have seen come out of there was three inches long. I think this is terrible and something should be done about it.

"When I asked about it they said it was because of construction. The way it is, however, there will be construction for 10 more years, and lots of kids will be cheated. They (the children) need catchable trout, and I hope you can help. Sincerely Mrs. J. A. Beckner, 15 Portola Ave., San Rafael."

I IMAGINE Mrs. Beckner's letter will get some action on the part of the Department of Fish and Game. Here's hoping!

Donahoo Steals Some Thunder

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Henry Donahoo stole the thunder at Country Club Bowl this past week when he missed a 700 series by only four pins in the Twilight Twirlers League.

Donahoo, a 187 average bowler, rolled a 195 followed with a big 269 and finished with a 231 for his 696 series.

In the four-game category, Bill Henderson was tops at Country Club, an 850 headed by a 238 line. Another big score from the 550 Trios was made by Lee Stetson, 246-841.

Ev Frager of the Elks League led the Country Club women's bowling with a 568 series in the Elks League. Key Brem had a 228-561 in the Weekenders and Char Warcup a 558 in the Hi-Lo's.

John Doherty and John Forsythe had high scores at Nave Lanes, Doherty with a 244-611 and Forsythe with 242-827. In distaff bowling, Marilyn Epidendio was star of the show, 215-595, followed by Patty Croker, 222-554.

THIS AND THAT—Gar Trowbridge, a 149 average roller, did much better than that, a 225 in the Adult-Junior League at Country Club Bowl . . . Randy Cox (144 avg.) rolled a 213 line and Kathi Spear (142 avg.) a 208 . . . Eleanor Marsh picked up the 6-7-10 split in the Elbow Benders League at Country Club Bowl . . . Al Hoffmann had high score in the 505 Scratch Trios at Country Club, 243-823 . . . Fran Koop picked up the 2-4-10 split in the Sleepers League at Country Club . . . Ed Gilbert of the Nite Owls League had a cyst removed from one of his eyes Tuesday morning but that wasn't going to stop him from bowling that night. It didn't seem to bother him as he rolled games of 210, 169 and 198 for a 577 series.

JUNIOR KEGLING — Land Park Bowl of Sacramento defeated the Marin County juniors in a match game at Greenbrae Lanes last weekend but the Marin kids are hoping for revenge when they renew the rivalry July 13 in Sacramento . . . Cindy Overhouse, 12, had a 169 game in the Junior Doubles at Country Club.

ONE LAST WORD — I'll be packing up my bowling ball and taking out the fishing rod for a few days, and I'll be enjoying every minute of it. See ya' in three weeks.

Nature, Man Endanger Great Australian Reef

By SCIENCE SERVICE

SYDNEY, Australia — The Great Barrier Reef, one of the natural wonders of the world, extends from near the mouth of the Fly River in New Guinea down the coast of Queensland, Australia, to Breaksea Spit, a distance of some 1,250 miles.

Now the reef faces danger of encroachment, both from marine creatures and from human beings.

Crown-of-thorns starfish have already destroyed large areas of coral near Green Island, and threaten wider devastation. The destruction was first observed three years ago, but scientists have been puzzled about its origin. The popular theory has been that tourists collecting triton shells, a natural enemy of the crown-of-thorns, allowed them to proliferate.

Naturalist Noel Monkman, however, has recently attacked this theory. He believes that the starfish's main natural predators are the sardine and another small fish called the hardyhead. These fish, he says, were driven away from Green Island six years ago by pile driving operations for a new jetty, and the starfish have been on the rise ever since.

Monkman says that Fisheries Department and university scientists have ignored both his theory and his urgent plea that nets be banned at least until the idea can be proved or disproved.

In 1967 a citizen of Cairns, North Queensland, D. S. Forbes, applied for an 84-acre lease to mine limestone for agricultural purposes on Ellison Reef, part of the Barrier 30 miles east of Innisfail. Because of considerable interest in mining the reef, his application was regarded as a test case.

No sooner was his request received, than 15 organizations and individuals lodged formal objections, and 11 others protested by letter or telegram.

Forbes said that he intended to supply coastal sugar cane farmers with fertilizer mined from dead coral, which would require mining at least 2,000 tons a year for a commercially successful operation. He expected to sell the lime at about 12 per cent below current prices.

Opposition has been both widespread and vocal. The director of the Australian Conservation Foundation, Dr. D. F. McMichael, says that no mining should be allowed on the reef until a qualified investigation has been made of all its resources. "It has a diversity of organisms," he says, "greater than anywhere else in the world. Many of these are unique to the Barrier Reef."

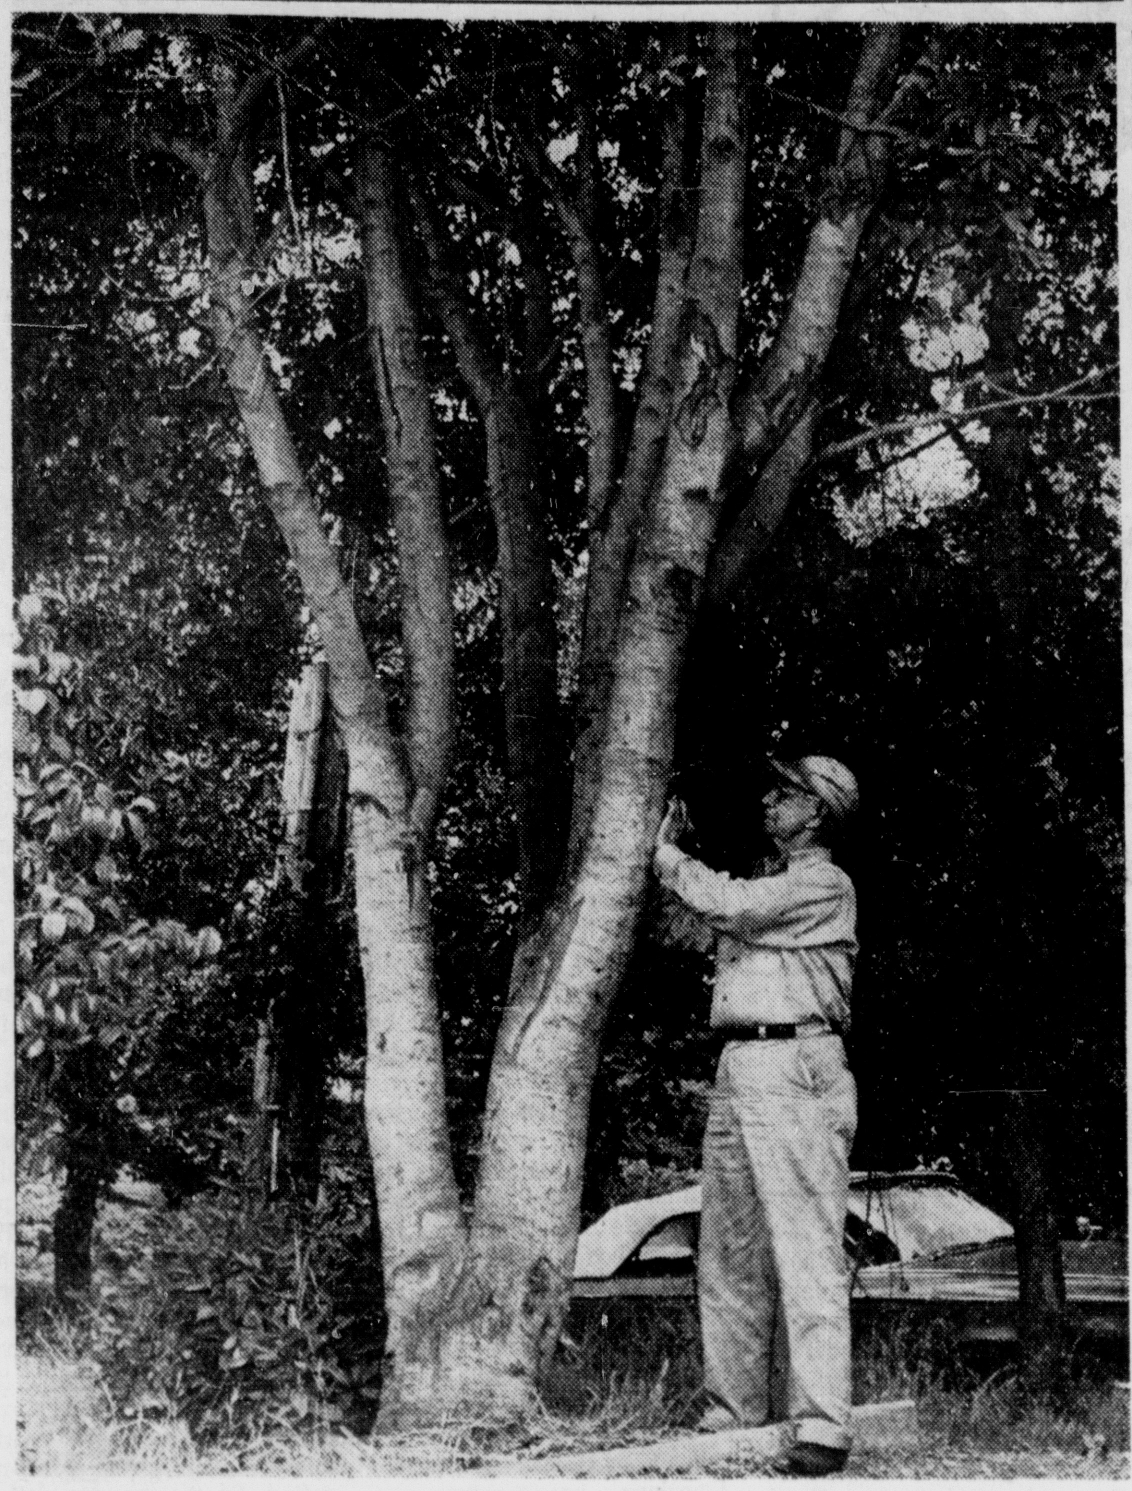
"I do not believe," he says, "that the coral sand deposited on the reef could be mined in the manner described without causing serious damage to the life there."

That the reef is teeming with life is hardly in doubt. In a five-day survey of Ellison Reef alone, three members of the Queensland Littoral Society catalogued 88 species of live coral, 190 species of fish and 60 species of mollusks. At least 40 species of fish were observed feeding on plant matter in the coral sand and on the very fine fur-like covering of algae on the coral rubble. The total effect of the mining would thus probably be far greater than merely killing the coral, says the Society's president, E. F. Hegerl. Direct interference, he claims, would disrupt the food supply of the fish and other creatures in the ecological chain, and the reef would probably undergo dramatic changes.

In the hearing on the lease request, the attorney representing the objectors, R. L. Arnell, likened the mining of the Barrier Reef for limestone to bulldozing the pyramids or the Taj Mahal for road-making material.

Finally Mining Warden J. W. Ashfield recommended that the application be turned down on the grounds of public interest, taking into account, he said, the expert evidence of witnesses for the objectors. The recommendation has been sent to the Queensland Minister for Mines for a final decision; he is not obliged to accept it.

But the conservationists and the miners continue their wary state. "I suggest," says J. H. Busst, president of the Innisfail branch of the Wild Life Preservation Society, perhaps planning for the future, "that an excellent scientific case could be prepared against any mining operation — whether for minerals or oil — in any area of the Barrier Reef."



RARE CHANCE FOR MARIN NAME-CARVER

Pierre (Pete) Faure (pronounced "for") of Kentfield carves his name on a French bay tree which his father, Elie Faure, brought to Marin from France around the turn of the century. French bays are rarities in Marin—this may be the only one, in fact — and Faure has offered to give it to any Marin organization which will save it from possible destruction by the imminent widening of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at Maple Avenue.

NEGLECTED TEETH APLENTY

Half Of U.S. Children Under 15 Have Never Visited A Dentist

By SCIENCE SERVICE

George Washington's false teeth were made of wood and ivory and they hurt.

In his day no president or king could get the dental care routinely available today. But the advances in prevention and care so far are neither as useful or as widely used as dentists hope to make them.

Some frontiers of dentistry are moving more and more out of the dentist office and into the home and the laboratories of chemists and physicists.

Prevention is the key effort. The first Institute of Preventive Dentistry in the United States has just been set up at Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. under Dr. Joseph L. Bernier, former chief of the Army Dental Corps.

Even with today's techniques — to say little of those being developed — Dr. Bernier maintains that parents can avoid all cavities and tooth loss in their children.

Nearly 800 million cavities need treatment.

The national dental bill is $3 billion annually, but $20 billion is believed needed for proper treatment of everyone —if there were enough dentists to provide it.

Preventive care is aimed at the two major tooth troubles: decay, or dental caries, and disease of the gums, which causes teeth to fall out later in life.

Research at the National Institute of Dental Research and elsewhere has shown that decay in teeth is caused by diet, certain kinds of bacteria and tooth susceptibility. All three factors must be present to cause caries.

Although in some places there are still hot battles over fluoridation of water, fluorides have been shown to protect teeth from their first eruption to the adult years. Biophysical studies are beginning to show why.

Fluoride appears to reduce decay by hardening the crystalline structure of the teeth. X-ray and electron microscope studies show that crystals make up the tooth's enamel.

Studies of bone, which also contains crystals, show that high fluoride content tends to make the crystals more perfect and more stable. Fluoride also replaces the hydroxylions in the calcium phosphate of bone, making the bone itself less soluble.

But drinking fluoridated water and brushing with fluoridated toothpaste after every meal are not enough. Direct applications of the chemical to the teeth are needed. Now a technique has been developed to take this operation, formerly done in the dentist's chair, into the home.

Last year about 350 preschool children of Coast Guard families stationed at Governor's Island, N. Y., began to praticipate in a study to check the effectiveness of a fluoride-gel-filled mouthpiece used a few minutes a day for three days a week.

Half of the children, ranging from 2 to 5, are using the mouthpieces, and the other half are going through the same procedure except that there is no fluoride in the gel.

A preliminary examination indicates that most of the two and three-years-old are free of tooth decay, whereas the 5 and 6-year-olds have an average of about two decayed or filled teeth. The investigation will last three years, and will show whether or not children beginning the study without any decay can maintain that state.

In Cheektowaga, N. Y., 80 per cent reduction in tooth decay was reported in the past two years among several hundred junior high school students using the mouthpieces. Both these studies have been conducted by Dr. Harold R. Englander of the Public Health Service's NIDR.

Also being studied are comparisons of the fluoride-mouthpiece technique in Charlotte, N. C., where the water supply is fluoridated, and in Cheektowaga, where it is not.

The mouthguard has the advantage of being in intimate contact with teeth and gums for a definite time; the fluoride is forced into pits and fissures without being diluted by saliva.

In view of the serious shortage of dentists and auxiliary personnel, Dr. Englander points out, the mouthpiece-fluoride technique holds great promise, since it enables a dental hygienist to supervise and treat many more children than is possible with current methods.

The other basic problem, peridontal or gum disease, shows up all over the world, regardless of nutritional or economic status.

Studies in some 30 different countries have shown that altitude and climate are also irrelevant, NIDR scientists emphasize. However, advancing age in the population causes increased gum disease, and it is more prevalent when mouth hygiene is absent.

Microbiologists at the institute have shown that a microorganism when inoculated into hamsters produces periodontal disease, and that the condition can be transmitted from infected animals to uninfected ones.

The stubborn calculus, or tartar, that forms deep on the teeth below the gums has been found that to be essentially mineralized bacterial deposits. Virtually all the mouth's microorganisms are subject ot such mineralization.

However, calculus does not form when the major salivary glands are removed, showing that saliva has some part in the process.

A major area of study involves the maturation of collagen, the most important part of connective tissue. In research on the biochemical and physiochemical bonds that hold the constituents of collagen together, Dental Institute scientists have shown that defects in molecular crosslinking patterns could strongly influence the tissue breakdown that occurs in gum disease.

Fireworks Case Probation Given

George K. Giakovmis, 24, was placed yesterday on three years' probation in Hayward Municipal Court on a misdemeanor charge of unlawful possession of fireworks.

A similar charge against Giakovmis is pending in Marin County.

He was arrested March 27 at his mother's home in Oak Manor, near Fairfax, after a series of explosions and a fire destroyed his room in a Hayward rooming house the night before.

No Hysteria Involved In Gun Registration

Public officials and citizens who favor stricter gun laws are being accused of "hysteria" and "lunacy."

If the gun registration ordinance, passed by the county and under consideration by cities, had forbidden the ownership of all weapons, then the "hysteria" and "lunacy" labels might be more fitting.

But the ordinance does not affect ownership at all. Registering of weapons is the only requirement. (Incidentally, the $2 fee provided in the ordinance is being reviewed so that the fee may be lowered to a level just enough to cover the cost of registration and no more. The county supervisors have stressed that the registration fee is in no way meant to be a new revenue source.)

ARGUMENTS AGAINST gun restrictions fall into these general categories:

1. The Constitution provides that the right of people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.

2. Registration will lead to confiscation and dictatorship.

3. Families will be left helpless and defenseless, as criminals tear down their doors and rob and pillage.

Those who cling doggedly to the constitutional guarantee against "infringement" on the people's right to bear arms seem to forget that "infringement" on that right is a continuing process that has been going on for years.

Machine guns, sawed-off shotguns and certain explosives are outlawed. Very few of us would object to laws against machine guns. And the mere fact that criminals and gangsters "will acquire machine guns anyway" does not justify relaxing the laws so that you and I can do the same.

Laws are developed to cope with changing circumstances and advances in technology. Advocates of gun registration are merely saying that in urban areas like Marin, they believe the recording of gun ownership would be of public benefit.

On point No. 2, will registration lead to confiscation and dictatorship? If our present government, with the Army, Navy and Air Force at its command wanted to impose a dictatorship, individual homeowners with pistols and shotguns would be no match for a trained Army equipped with A-bombs and jets. The idea that dictatorship can be prevented solely because we own unregistered guns in our homes is absurd.

The argument that families will be left unprotected is "scare" tactics. Registration means no change in ownership. You still retain your gun and can take your son out hunting or target shooting. If you are convinced that the revolver under your pillow will prevent intruders, you still have that same protection. Registration will not pinpoint that revolver under your pillow or in your nightstand drawer. Besides, our law enforcement agencies, on which we depend almost 100 per cent for protection, are still intact.

It's true that criminals may not register their weapons, and registration will not stop assassins. But in the long range view, we can see these advantages.

ANY WEAPONS found in a car or on anyone who appears suspicious to police can be checked for registration.

Any revolutionary who has grandiose ideas of collecting an arsenal and working for the overthrow of the government would be required to register his weapons. Such person will probably assemble his arsenal in secret, whereas now, he can do so openly. With gun registration, any clandestine cache could be confiscated.

To sum up, gun registration will not take any weapons from homes, except those who voluntarily turn in their guns. The "hardships" imposed on owners are certainly no more than what fishermen accept today. No one objects too strenuously to having a game warden make spot checks occasionally to see if he has a license, and whether the trout stickers are attached.

Gun registration is not nearly as onerous as some opponents would have you believe, and certainly does not call for name-calling like "lunatics" and "hysteria."

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Tax Weary Citizens May Turn To Tax Limitation Initiative

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — One of the major issues the people of California will have to face next November, as it appears at the present time, is whether or not they wish through constitutional changes to limit property taxation to one per cent of actual cash value for providing property related services.

An initiative, known as the Watson proposal, needing 520,276 signatures to qualify for the general election ballot, is gaining headway in Southern California, and it is now believed that sufficient signatures will be obtained to qualify it for the ballot. The proposal is named for Philip Watson, Los Angeles County assessor, long a proponent of tax limitation.

This initiative, if qualified, will provide something new in the political scene, and from the way the wind is blowing at the present time, it's going to be a hard fought battle both ways.

THE PROPOSAL is one which will engender popular appeal, primarily because of the steadily increasing spiral of property taxation that has taken place throughout the state for the past few decades. The public has very nearly reached the breaking point on taxation, so it is argued in some quarters that the people will reach out in almost any direction to halt what seems to be a never-ending upgrading of taxes.

The forces of the California Real Estate Association, an organization with a proven record of success in the promotion of initiatives before the people, (remember Proposition 4?) have been thrown in support of the tax limit initiative and it is urging its 176 local boards throughout the state to work actively in support of the proposal.

ON THE OTHER hand, Gov. Ronald Reagan said in a recent press conference that he is opposed to the tax limitation plan.

A limitation as proposed, he said, would create chaos in local government financing.

The only manner in which tax relief can be accomplished, the governor said, is through finding broader bases for taxation, all of which takes a lot of time, years in fact.

The governor pointed out that his own tax relief program for property owners is hung up in the Legislature. That it will be enacted into law at this session is highly debatable, although Assemblyman John G. Veneman, R-Modesto, has not as yet given up hope for enactment.

THUS, THE Watson proposal may in the final analysis be influenced to a large extent by legislative action, or inaction as the case may be. If the property tax relief plan should be enacted by the present Legislature, this would tend to put a brake on support for the intitiative, as some relief would be obtained, although not as much as some taxpayers might hope for.

On the other hand, if the Legislature does nothing in the matter of property tax relief, it is not inconceivable that the people of the state, wearied of waiting for the Legislature to provide a modicum of relief, may take matters into their own hands through the initiative, and enact their own measure.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Recording Firearms Termed 'Lunacy'

Lunacy promulgated by our Supervisors: The recording of all firearms and a $2 fee for each. Do you honestly think the baddies are going to be so naive as to register and pay up? This is a tax and an imposition on the honest citizen. And if he is sufficiently shortsighted as to turn in his guns, he's contributing to Orwell's 1984: The gathering of abiding citizens' means of protection into one dump. Incidentally, what happens to said dump? Could it be raided by baddies needing more guns? Or taken over by a dictator? We've had two recent assassinations, and everybody cried buckets.

In San Francisco a policeman was killed, and another wounded while apprehending armed robbers. Want to bet the only tears shed for the policemen will be by their families and co-workers? And that the bleeding hearts will shortly start the usual barrage re "poor, sick killers—pity them and try to help them." You know they will. As for the June 19 cartoon, "We're just using our guns for target practice" — do you really think we're going to stop this kind of thing by gun registration and tax? Go after the man BEHIND the gun, not the gun itself. We have laws on the books; let the judges enforce them, right up to the hilt. And by hilt I mean San Quentin and the little old pill-drop. We should write our legislators re our right to bear arms for self protection. Or HAS the U.S. Constitution gone farther down the drain?

Higher Auto Tolls And Less Bus Fare

The Golden Gate Bridge District has stated publicly that they could reduce the bridge toll to a dime for everybody and come out all right but that this would swamp San Francisco with cars. At present the bus fare between San Francisco and Marin averages more than 50 cents each way while the bridge toll is 13 cents for commute car tickets and 25 cents for occasional users. This should be reversed.

Charge 50 cents for cars and 10 cents to ride a beefed up deficit operating bus system funded by surplus bridge funds. This would immediately relieve the bridge and connecting streets and highways with no major investment required.

Of course this idea is too simple for our districts, committees, boards, councils, advisors, planners consultants, etc., etc. to understand. They prefer to make surveys and call each other uncomplimentary names. But surely there must be among us a man or men of integrity and drive who can do something about this intolerable situation and get the traffic moving.

Exempt The Elderly From School Tax

After the fiasco which took place at the May 21st Tamalpais High School District Trustee meeting over the excessive salary paid the District Director of Maintenance and Operations, the Reed School District Trustees at their board meeting of June 18th have now come up with another type of tax-money "give-away."

Reed District has had a Director of Research paid with federal funds. Now that these funds are no longer available and in order to keep this position alive, our big-hearted trustees have managed to squeeze $15,000 worth of fat off the '68-69 budget. So now Reed has this position, Director of Research, paid by the Reed taxpayers.

We are all stuck with high taxes in Marin, in fact they are in the top bracket in California. Our school taxes are way out of line, taking 60 cents out of every tax dollar and still they cry for more money.

The retired elderly person on a fixed income is hard put to pay these increasingly high taxes each year, and with all the talk about doing something about his, still nothing is being done.

I believe the only fair way would be to exempt all persons over 65 years of age from paying school taxes, as we have raised our families. Let the younger generation pay for their own as we have done and our parents have done.

Gun Laws Serve Only To Harass And Tax

. . . .Maybe I should turn in my little .22 and hope that all potential threats to my safety and well being such as snakes, rabid animals, thiefs, rioters and such will automatically cease to exist. MAYBE. Maybe the prime reason for the urgency of the registration of weapons is not the fee which will be collected. But what happens when not only the city and the county have "gun laws" (at $2 per gun) but the state and federal governments do the same? Naturally each will want a fee for the registration. Maybe the potential tax windfall has nothing to do with it — MAYBE.

The intentions behind these "gun laws" may be of the very best. Weren't they enacted by our elected representatives? The intentions may be excellent, but the only effect I can foresee is harrassment and taxation of the innocent law-abiding citizen. Our representatives should think twice or even three times before rushing headlong into ineffectual legislation.

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

June 28, 1958

The Tiburon Naval Net Depot was closed — the victim of economies and a change in emphasis toward electronic-nuclear weapons in modern warfare.

A brush fire seared 300 acres in the Black Canyon area northeast of San Rafael, burning for an hour and one-half before being controlled. Forty-seven firemen and 11 trucks were sent to fight the blaze.

20 YEARS AGO

June 28, 1948

A novel parade, featuring "cowboys" and "nurses" and a variety of other occupations was held to stress bike safety among youngsters. Robert Hillis, dressed as a haloed angel, won the top prize in the costume competition.

Angry San Anselmo citizens formed a vigilante group to help track down a dog poisoner who poisoned 13 dogs, 7 of them fatally.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

THE BUDDING daughter of a traveling salesman was taught to close her evening prayer, when Papa was on the road, with "And please watch over my daddy." It sounded just fine to her mother — until one night she heard the little girl add, "And you'd better keep an eye on Mama, too."

MRS. SHLOPHANNES did not take the death of her husband too hard. In fact, a short two months later she waltzed off with her dead spouse's brother. To avert criticism, the newlyweds hung a large portrait of the first Mr. Shlophannes in the living room. "Who's that distinguished looking gentleman?" a newly installed neighbor inquired one day. "Him?" answered Mrs. S. airily, "that's my poor brother-in-law. He passed away recently."

Has Hanoi Given Up Hope Of Winning The War In Vietnam?

WASHINGTON — Out of the welter of speculation and rumor over what appears to be an intensified war in Vietnam as against the prolonged and thus far fruitless negotiations in Paris two convictions emerge at the highest level of civilian authority.

First is the belief based on a review of the whole range of intelligence documents that Hanoi has decided the war cannot be won.

Second is the conviction growing out of a review of all available figures, screened as realistically as possible against the optimism of field commanders, that the Communists cannot sustain their present losses for an indefinite period. Related to this is the fact that since the end of May there has been some dropoff in the rate of infiltration. Why this is so and to what extent is not yet known.

IT MUST BE stressed that this is not the kind of facile optimism that has all too often come from high-ranking Americans in Saigon. For with this appraisal goes a realization that there will likely be hard fighting ahead for an indeterminate time.

The infiltration from the north into the south was a record for May, with an estimated 29,000 moving down the jungle trails through Laos and Cambodia despite the sustained air attack on the Vietnamese panhandle from the 19th parallel southward. But of this number 26,000 were replacements, with only 3,000 constituting new troops.

The body count as put out by American headquarters in Saigon has been such a dubious measurement that all figures in this area are regarded with skepticism. But among those most skeptical in the past the following is considered a close approximation of the facts. While American losses in May averaged 500 a week the enemy average was 5,000, with a total for the month of not less than 25,000.

THE REASON for the high American casualty rate is plain enough. Instead of as in the past striking at an American force and then melting away, the Communists stood and fought. The strategy was obviously aimed at the Paris talks, with a show of strength and unacceptably high American casualties bringing quick concessions from the United States negotiating team.

The same objective is behind the mortar attacks on Saigon that have resulted in such a fearful civilian toll. If the world could be convinced that the South Vietnamese government was in a hopeless position and the capital vulnerable to constant attack the war would have to be concluded on terms dictated by the North. While South Vietnamese men, women and children have fallen under the mortar fire, much of it directed at the Chinese area of Cholon, by a grim irony only one American casualty has resulted from these attacks.

IF NORTH VIETNAM was bent on a massive show of strength aimed at the Paris talks so, American critics of the Vietnam war have been saying, was the United States command in Saigon. Not a little of this criticism has been based on a dispatch to the Chicago Daily News from South Vietnam, citing an American military directive calling for what was, in effect, an all-out assault on the enemy.

The interpretation of that directive at the highest civilian level here — it may be merely a rationalization — is quite different from the emphasis put on it in the news dispatch. The directive anticipated the determination of the North Vietnamese forces to stand and fight. In effect, the directive said: Let's accept the challenge in this decisive period of the war. We, so the interpretation goes, were reacting to the enemy rather than expressing a resolve to push forward to final victory.

THE BELIEF, finally, is that the talks in Paris will go on — significantly in this view Hanoi has given no ultimatum, although announcing at the start that the only purpose of the preliminary discussion was to get American agreement to end all bombing and other acts of war.

Hanoi may believe that the November election and a new President will bring a radical change, with perhaps even American withdrawal. The deep division in the Democratic party as shown in the primaries must encourage this belief. But as the Paris talks are prolonged and attitudes harden the end result could be quite the opposite.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Shenanigans Suspected In Federal Job Program

By ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON —A highly touted, much publicized special project to provide employment for hundreds of disadvantaged youth in Washington's ghettos is being extensively investigated on a number of sensational charges.

Pride, Inc., hurriedly launched last summer with a $2 million Labor Department grant at the urging of Vice President Humphrey and other administration leaders when tensions were running high and the Capitol appeared on the verge of racial violence, is undergoing extensive probing for the following:

(1) Alleged large-scale payroll padding and other fiscal irregularities.

(2) THE KILLER of a liquor store dealer in a holdup reputedly was a Pride, Inc., employee. The police are checking on information that other members of the robbery gang also were Pride workers.

(3) Two high-placed Pride officials allegedly rented a car to drive to Philadelphia where they met with members of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM), an extremist Negro nationalist organization, and gave them $1,000.

(4) Pride employees are reportedly attempting to extort "protection money" from Washington merchants.

(5) AN ALLEGED PLAN under which Pride, Inc., would buy a fleet of Volkswagens by putting down one-fourth of the cost. The cars would then be turned over to supervisors and other administrative personnel who would pay the remainder in monthly installments from padded mileage and other authorized expense accounts. Presumably, in the end, the autos would belong to these individuals although actually paid for with government funds.

(6) A D.C. Child Labor Bureau inspector reported that a Pride employee told him that a "number of Pride boys" were using narcotics, and that one allegedly told the informant "he had never used dope" until his Pride supervisor introduced him to it.

(7) A number of Pride employees were found to be juveniles under the legal working age of 14. One check disclosed twelve, of whom one was 10, three were 12, and eight 13 years of age.

(8) Four Pride officials are being paid at the rate of $250 to $300 a week; a number of others $125 to $175 a week. From September 1967 to June 1968, $10,000 was paid for "consultant services." One consultant received $80 a day, but his advice concerning business ventures was ignored.

(9) A U.S. Marshal memorandum on the bulletin board of the "poor people's campaign" headquarters in downtown Washington warned that unauthorized persons were loading up government surplus food at various pickup points, selling it and pocketing the money. The Marshal stated the memo concluded, "The men are believed to be members of Pride, Inc."

THE SPARKPLUG — The wide-ranging investigations of these and other shocking charges against Pride, Inc., are being made both by Congress and government agencies.

Sparking these extensive probes is Rep. Joel Broyhill, R., from nearby Arlington, Va. A member of the House D.C. Committee, he has kept a close watch on Pride, Inc., since it was launched last August with much hoopla and fanfare.

It was first headed by youthful Rufus "Catfish" Mayfield, who admittedly has a police record. He was subsequently elbowed out by Marion Barry, a civil rights militant and black power advocate.

They're Acting, Not Just Talking To Improve Racial Relations

Two of the several groups formed in the wake of the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. have been very active these past few weeks in Southern Marin, quietly working to improve all facets of the broad area of race relations.

These two are People Against Racism, actually a county-wide organization which is focusing its attention specifically on Marin City at the moment, and the Mill Valley Community Relations Committee, mainly concerned with Mill Valley but overlapping into its neighboring community, Marin City.

Two Marin City college girls — Odessa Battle and Emma Price — who are a part of the new careers program at San Francisco State, are teaching the class Monday through Thursday from 6:30 to 10 p.m. Anywhere from five to 25 youngsters, ages 7 and up, participate in the program with the attendance varying according to the night and the project.

Mary acts as a consultant to the girls, advising them on how and where to purchase supplies, giving hints on special projects and other helpful advice when needed. She and others in People Against Racism are doing, when far too many others are still only talking.

Not to be limited to only one project, People Against Racism are also actively campaigning to get donations of money and equipment for the beautiful new Manzanita center.

THE GROUP has already collected over $1,000 which has been given to the center for the purchase of needed equipment. Last night, the group gave the center a small bus which the staff wanted for field trips. (The bus was made possible by a generous anonymous donor.)

Still needed: Kitchen equipment including plates and cups, sewing machines and much other equipment — all new please. Donations should be made to the People Against Racism committee rather than to the center directly. Person to contact is Mrs. Adeline Foster of Greenbrae.

The Mill Valley Community Relations Committee is working to eliminate the "white racist" so well identified in the Kerner Report. The committee has successfully prevailed upon the Mill Valley Library to set up a special bookshelf on the racial crisis. Other projects include lobbying to open the back road over the hill between Marin City and Mill Valley to facilitate traveling — especially by children — between the two communities and planning a program for the Summer of Understanding, endorsed by the board of supervisors last month.

IN THE MAILBOX the other day was an unusual note from a neighbor in Mill Valley's Oakdale-Buena Vista Avenue area: "We have lost a cat. We'd like very much to find him."

The note went on to say that Albert (pronounced the French way) was a large, two-year-old, short haired, dark brown-black male with honey colored markings and a white chin, wearing a collar tag bearing the name "Gus." Albert also has an injured tail, now partly healed, and he disappeared two weeks ago, according to his family, Michael and Lesley Rosenberg of 315 Oakdale Avenue.

"He is very affectionate and may simply be spending some time with another family. We've had him for two years and are very much concerned about his welfare." The same blue mimeographed note on blue paper was stuck in every mailbox in the entire neighborhood.

Why Should We Register Cars? That Won't Cut Down Accidents

WASHINGTON — The Committee to Abolish the Registration of Automobiles and the Licensing of Drivers has just opened up a lobby in Washington and I was happy to visit with Roger Crash, their spokesman.

Mr. Crash said, "We have formed this organization because the constitutional rights of all automobile drivers are at stake. There is no reason why anybody should not be allowed to own and drive an automobile in this country without his rights being infringed by local, state and federal authorities."

"Obviously you're against registration of vehicles, then?"

"We certainly are. Most people who drive should not be inconvenienced by some bureaucrat who wants to know what they intend to use a car for. There is a conspiracy in this country to get everyone to register their automobiles, so they eventually can be taken away from them."

"WHO IS BEHIND the conspiracy?"

"The Communists. They know that America would collapse overnight if their automobiles were confiscated. This country is going through an hysterical period right now. They blame all the automobile deaths and accidents on the drivers. But you're not going to prevent accidents by asking people to register their vehicles. If somebody wants a car to kill somebody, he'll find it, no matter how many laws you have."

"You're also against a driver's test, aren't you?"

"We certainly are. Why should you penalize the law-abiding average driver by making him take a driver's test, just to catch a few nuts who are outside the law?

"BY ASKING someone to take a driver's test, you are subjecting him to indignity and guilt by association. You cannot punish the car-loving citizen who only uses his automobile for pleasure, in order to prevent accidents caused by lawless elements of our society."

"Mr. Crash, one of the arguments for registering automobiles and making people take a driver's test is that it prevents the vehicles from getting into the hands of children, criminals and unstable people who might cause accidents."

"The bleeding hearts and do-gooders use this argument all the time, but the automobile is part of our American birthright. Has it ever occurred to you that in every police state the dictators make their people register their automobiles and take a driver's test?"

"Is your society for doing away with traffic laws as well?"

"WE ARE AGAINST what would inconvenience a driver in any way. People must be free to do what they want with their automobiles. Our economy depends on motor vehicles. Every time you pass a traffic law you discourage someone from buying a car. Traffic laws do not prevent accidents; people prevent accidents."

"How do you propose to repeal the registration and driving test laws that are now on the books?"

"By launching a mammoth letter campaign. We're going to ask everyone who owns a car to write his congressman and senator demanding the repeal of all laws having to do with motor vehicles. This is an election year and, I assure you, our legislators are paying attention to their mail."

"I MUST admit you make a strong case against automobile controls. Do you think you have a chance?"

Mr. Crash replied, "There is now a big hue and cry about automobile accidents in this country, but it will die down soon. And then our lobby will really be able to go into action. We're tax-free, you know."

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Bitter Attack On Bridge People Is Not To Our Advantage

Fusselman

It should be obvious by now that this business of going after the bridge people with the ax, for presumed personal advantage or because of mounting anger, is not good business.

Their effort, of course, to avoid calling for bids on a third of a million dollar job was poor business too. But vitriolic attacks by a Marin supervisor is not going to induce anything but sullen anger on their part. This is not helping the supervisor much either, especially when one reads of his constant bitter exchanges, while the supervisors are in session. He had better leave that for the arrogant one.

THIS BRIDGE would not have been built if the concept had been that it was solely for the benefit of Marin. All of the California counties but one, which comprise the Redwood Empire, have put a lien on all of their real property to be satisfied with a direct property tax, if necessary, in support of bonds which were sold to build the bridge. These bonds are non-callable and will not be fully paid off until 1971.

If the bridge should have collapsed or had been destroyed, those bonds and interest would have had to be paid off.

THIS HAS ALWAYS caused the down town property owners of San Francisco, where the largest assessed values of the bridge district are, to oppose any concessions to Marin. In addition to what has just been said, there is also the provision that if in any one year the revenues are not sufficient to pay for running expenses and take care of bond and interest requirements, then the following year a direct property tax to cover the deficiency must be levied.

The early bridge boards were dominated by San Francisco political heavyweights, who got that way through the support of the big money interests down town. These San Francisco pols had sufficient personal buddies in the north counties to control everything. We never had a chance.

HOWEVER, AS the reserves of cash on hand grew to tremendous amounts which in turn realized large interest income, we, through friendly co-operation, were able to make some headway.

Now, with these bitter attacks coming from our official family, this co-operative climate, needed so much to work out a tri-partite solution to our transportation problem is being hurt badly — not very smart.

QUITE LIKELY had the East Bay bridge preceded the Golden Gate bridge, in taking the hurdles at Sacramento and been fought by the railway lobbyists as we were, they would have been forced to finance solely by revenue bonds, without help from gas tax (which has always been used there). The Golden Gate bridge would then undoubtedly have been built as part of the highway system.

In all fairness, do you know, outside of the highway users tax (gas tax, etc.), of any jurisdiction, with taxing power, that has had those receiving the service and only those pay for it?

Save-The-Bay Program's Cost May Reach Millions

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— The San Francisco Planning and Urban Renewal Association was told Wednesday that it will cost about $2 billion in capital investment and millions annually to keep the San Francisco Bay clean.

The report was made by Raymond Walsh, manager of the San Francisco Bay-Delta Water Quality Control Program, which made a study of the problem.

Walsh said that although the cost was high it would be spread over a 40-year period.

He also described three alternative plans.

One would dump waste water into the ocean instead of the bay at a cost of $2.2 billion and $10 million annually; a second plan would bring the waste to San Pablo and Suisun bays with capital costs about the same but annual costs about 10 times higher; a third plan would reclaim waste water for agricultural use, costing about the same for capital and $127 million annually for operations.

"I can get my own drink!"

ALMANAC

The moon is between its new phase and first quarter. The morning star is Saturn. The evening star is Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1902 the United States bought the uncompleted Panama Canal from France.

In 1919 the Treaty of Versailles was signed, officially ending World War I.

In 1945 Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced the reconquest of Luzon in the Philippines.

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

When Doubled Read Bidding Carefully To Make Contract

When you're doubled at a low contract it's important to know which opponent has the trumps. You play the hand one way if the trumps are stacked at your right and another way if they're at your left.

BELATED TAKE-OUT

South knew that East's double of two spades was a belated takeout double, based on reasonable high-card strength and good support for the unbid suits. West had made a "penalty pass," showing length and strength in spades. South therefore knew it would do him no good to lead a trump to the ace and then return a trump from dummy.

East won the first trick with the ace of clubs and returned the seven of clubs to the king. South promptly led his singleton king of hearts. Perhaps he would have stolen a trick with the king of hearts if he had led the suit from dummy, but South desperately needed ruffing tricks and didn't need a heart trick.

RUFFS HEARTS

East won with the ace of hearts and led his other club to the queen. Now South led a trump to the ace and ruffed a heart. He continued with the ace of diamonds and a diamond to the king. The diamond finesse was both risky and unnecessary.

South then ruffed another heart and led his last diamond to get out of his hand. By this time South was reduced to three trumps and the last diamond, while West held three trumps and a club.

DISCARDS CLUBS

West discarded a club on the third round of diamonds, but it didn't help. West had to win the next trick with the ten of spades and then had to lead from the K-J of spades, giving South the last trick with the queen of spades. This was declarer's eighth trick, giving him the game and rubber.

DAILY QUESTION

♠—7
♥—A J 6 5 4
♦—Q 10 7 6
♣—A 7 5.

What do you say?

Aswer: Some experts would bid one heart; others would pass. This is a borderline decision and depends partly on your temperament, partly on the nature of your partner and partly on the state of your bank balance.

Arizona Lawmakers Choke Off Bola Law

PHOENIX (AP) — After passing the Arizona House of Representatives, a bill to make the bola tie the official neckwear of the state was killed following heated debate in the State Senate.

Some called the bill "ridiculous," while others opposed the measure because it did not define what constitutes a "bola tie." A bola tie is a woven leather cord held together by an ornamental clasp, usually made of silver, copper, turquoise or a combination.
